Teaching Literacy through Drama Patrice Baldwin, Kate Fleming, 2003-08-29 This book provides teachers of children at Key Stages 1 and 2 with a much needed source of exciting and creative drama based activities designed to improve literacy. As useful for the drama novice as for the busy literacy co-ordinator these flexible activities are designed to help teachers meet National Curriculum and National Literacy Strategy NLS requirements particularly through speaking and listening. The book is divided into three parts. Part 1 looks at literacy and the power of drama as a brain friendly medium for teaching and learning. Part 2 contains ten structured practical units of work each based on a different story poem play or traditional tale or rhyme and each linked directly to the requirements and objectives of the NLS and the QCA objectives for speaking and listening. Part 3 contains photocopiable Literacy Support Sheets for teachers to use and adapt for their own classroom needs. All units of work have been tried and tested by the authors giving teachers a springboard from which to enhance and extend their literacy lessons and engage the imagination of their pupils. The book is also the ideal resource for student teachers
