Africa Labby Ramrathan,Suriamurthe Maistry,Sylvan Blignaut,2024-06-19 This edited volume focuses on Curriculum scholars critical reflections on teacher education TE within South Africa to offer insights into critical considerations for the socio economic transformational social and environmental justice and decolonization challenges that the country faces Much of the literature on teacher education takes on a policy and practice focus to the exclusion of deep and fundamental curriculum questions on what is teacher education for for whom where and who decides Within South Africa the Minimum Requirements for Teacher Education Qualification MRTEQ forms the official policy that informs teacher education curriculum and certification to become a teacher This volume raises critical and complicated questions for teacher educators and curriculum scholars to inspire a deeper understanding of teacher education beyond a set of parochial policy prescribed modules courses that one needs to take to become a professional teacher The National Agricultural Directory 2009,2009 Utilisation of South African Research on Higher Education Jan Botha ,Gabriele Vilyte,2021-10-26 The relationship between research on the one hand and policy practice on the other hand is complicated and collaboration between scholars in research on higher education RHE and institutional research IR practitioners is often lacking This book marks a collaborative effort of a diverse range of South African RHE and IR scholars and asks the overarching questions What do we know about the utilisation of South African research on higher education SARHE and its subset of research known as Institutional Research How and by whom is this research used The book begins by looking at the historical underpinnings of SARHE and delineating the shape and size of this body of research This is followed by a series of case studies on South African Higher Education institutions and governmental bodies investigating how when and by whom are research on higher education and institutional research used in the decision making of these organisations This book is the first of its kind in South Africa and sets out to lay the groundwork for further research into the use uptake and utilisation of RHE and IR in this country The Tongue Is Fire Harold Scheub,1996-10-15 In the years between the Sharpeville Massacre of 1960 and the Soweto Uprising of 1976 a period that was both the height of the apartheid system in South Africa and in retrospect the beginning of its end Harold Scheub went to Africa to collect stories With tape recorder and camera in hand Scheub registered the testaments of Swati Xhosa Ndebele and Zulu storytellers farming people who lived in the remote reaches of rural South Africa While young people fought in the streets of Soweto and South African writers made the world aware of apartheid s evils the rural storytellers resisted apartheid in their own way using myth and metaphor to preserve their traditions and confront their oppressors For more than 20 years Scheub kept the promise he made to the storytellers to publish his translations of their stories only when freedom came to South Africa The Tongue Is Fire presents these voices of South African oral tradition the historians the poets the epic performers the myth makers documenting their enduring faith in the power of the word to sustain tradition in the face of determined efforts to distort or eliminate it These texts are a tribute to the storytellers who have always in periods of crisis exercised their art to inspire their own people Unlocking the chains of knowledge Monwabisi K Ralarala,Suren Pillay,Zannie Bock,Russell H. Kaschula,2025-02-28 Unlocking the chains of knowledge Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal addresses the complex yet imperative task of reshaping the colonial legacy embedded within South African higher education and beyond The book confronts the historical and ideological bindings that have entrenched European centric knowledge within the fabric of academia in Africa propelling a transformative journey within the Arts and Humanities At its core this work presents a tripartite focus firstly understanding the deep seated issues ingrained in the traditional university structure secondly remaking pedagogical practices and lastly renewing the curriculum Recognising the historical dominance of Eurocentric ideas the book explores various movements theories and practices from negritude to postcolonial theory aiming to emancipate and amplify the voices and knowledge of those historically excluded With a commitment to a pluralistic approach the book scrutinises the power dynamics of language the importance of diverse perspectives and the challenging task of inclusion without replicating the divisive structures of the past Prof Christine Winberg Research Chair in Work integrated Learning Cape Peninsula University of Technology In Unlocking the chains of knowledge: Understanding the challenges remaking pedagogies and curriculum renewal the editors provide a decisive and detailed reflection and profound understanding of complexities of knowledge generation in Southern Africa Unlike many volumes that address these intricate complexities this volume not only navigates the intricate complexities of the long history of epistemic injustices and intolerance in the Southern African higher education environment but delves deeper into the core of what is required for curriculum transformation and renewal The groundbreaking volume addresses the urgent need for linguistic inclusivity consciousness about decoloniality as well as embedding social justice in South African and Zimbabwean education and by doing so presents strategies that can be used by the rest of the African continent in addressing the scourge of coloniality Prof Pamela Maseko Executive Dean Faculty of Humanities Nelson Mandela University
