Year of Fire, Year of Ash Baruch Hirson,2016-06-15 We can say without fear of being contradicted by history that June 16 1976 heralded the beginning of the end of the centuries old white rule in this country Nelson Mandela Originally banned on publication by the apartheid government Year of Fire Year of Ash is an eye opening account of how in June 1976 20 000 school students faced down the tanks and guns of a vicious racist regime in a revolt that galvanized the black working class and became a pivotal turning point for the anti apartheid movement More than this the book overturns much of the conventional logic that served to explain the event at the time showing it was not simply a student protest but part of a wider uprising Released in this new edition to mark the fortieth anniversary Year of Fire Year of Ash provides an unparalleled insight into the origins and events of the uprising from its antecedents in the 1920s to its role in inspiring global solidarity against apartheid As South Africa experiences a new wave of popular discontent and as new forms of black consciousness

come to the fore in movements around the world Baruch Hirson's book provides a timely reminder of the Soweto revolt's continued significance to struggles against oppression today Higher Education in Africa Damtew Teferra, Jane Knight, 2008 The first of its kind this book documents and analyzes the international dimension of higher education in Africa based on country case studies and a consideration of relevant historical and contemporary themes It identifies trends developments and challenges related to the international dimension of higher education at the institutional national and regional levels It explores the institutional the opportunities and probes the risks while it responds to the growing need for information and analysis of internationalization of higher education in Africa On the basis of this book project an effort is underway to establish the African Network for Internationalization of Education ANIE This network aims to develop research capacity and expertise to meet the professional and practical needs of individuals institutions and organizations interested in the international dimension of higher education in Africa

Transformation of Archives and Heritage Education in Post-apartheid South Africa Geraldine Frieslaar, Olusegun Morakinyo, 2023-06-10 Although there have been significant strides to transform the demographics of archive and museum personnel develop new museums and heritage institutions and heritage training initiatives in post apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring
