2016 Postgraduate Ufs:

Postgraduate Supervision Magda Fourie-Malherbe, 2016-11-21 The 24 chapters contained in this volume provide diverse but also congruent perspectives on future foci for research into postgraduate education and supervision in the knowledge society The chapters move from deliberations on challenges for postgraduate supervision at macro level such as the pressure to increase postgraduate output and the implications of increasingly managerialist institutions to meso level matters the form and function of postgraduate education in specific countries to the micro rich case studies of individual institutions programmes and supervisors

Student Movements in Late Neoliberalism Lorenzo Cini, Donatella della Porta, César Guzmán-Concha, 2021-08-22 This book inquires into the global wave of student mobilizations that have arisen in the aftermath of the economic crisis of 2008 accounting for their historical and sociological significance More specifically its eleven chapters explore the role of students as political actors their ability to build effective organizations to make political alliances with other actors and to win public consensus as well as their impact on cultural political and policy outcomes To do so the volume examines case studies in England Chile South Africa Quebec and Hong Kong covering Europe Africa Asia and North and Latin America Grouped into two major sections the collection covers the organizational structures of student movements and their alliances and outcomes Ultimately this volume examines the understudied political aspects of student unrest exploring how student mobilizations driven by indebtedness precariousness the corporatization of the university and other issues correspond to larger processes of change with wider implications in society

Afrikaans Linguistics WAM Carstens, Nerina Bosman, 2024-10-03 Offering a contemporary exploration of the multifaceted landscape of Afrikaans linguistics Afrikaans Linguistics Contemporary Perspectives marks a seminal contribution to the field This volume for the first time presents accessible insights into diverse linguistics subdisciplines inviting international scholars to familiarise themselves with Afrikaans language studies Throughout much of the late 19th and 20th centuries Afrikaans scholars predominantly communicated in Afrikaans resulting in a significant gap in the dissemination of knowledge about the language The chapters in this book written by prominent South Africans as well as international scholars working in the field of Afrikaans serve as a pivotal bridge by providing essential historical context while also paying attention to the development of Afrikaans linguistics during the 20th century The primary focus remains on illuminating 21st century research trajectories offering a comprehensive snapshot of contemporary scholarship in Afrikaans linguistics

Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education Gumbo, Mishack Thiza, Gaotlhobogwe, Michael, Pedzisai, Constantino, Jojo, Zingiswa Mybert Monica, Knaus, Christopher B., 2024-05-13 A deep seated issue persists in postgraduate education one that threatens the relevance of academia in our diverse and evolving world The problem at hand is the Western centric nature of postgraduate education where research paradigms methodologies and theoretical frameworks overwhelmingly reflect a Western worldview This rigid adherence to Western ideologies has left indigenous communities on the periphery of academic discourse denying them the opportunity to engage with their knowledge systems and practices Despite the richness and prevalence of indigenous knowledge the existing educational structure remains a barrier to their inclusion This disconnect is not only an academic concern but also a societal one as it hinders sustainable development and stifles the voices of indigenous scholars and students Global Perspectives on Decolonizing Postgraduate Education serves as a compelling solution to the problem at hand It offers a comprehensive roadmap to decolonize postgraduate education infusing it with indigenous approaches paradigms theories and methods Through critical examination and practical strategies this book empowers academics curriculum designers and postgraduate students to embark on a transformative journey Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela ,2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio political shifts legal education stands at a critical crossroads This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students institutions and society at large Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight the book offers forwardthinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching learning and research in the legal academy More than a commentary this book is a call to action a vital resource for educators academic leaders and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance excellence and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century Transformation and Legitimation in Post-apartheid Universities Dionne van Reenen,J.C. van der Merwe,2016-07-01 Two decades after the democratic transition South African universities are in turmoil Whilst the old is slowly becoming unhinged reimagining the new is protracted and contested The challenges ahead including a funding crunch are formidable and bear the imprint of South African postcolonial specificities and global transformations in higher education At this moment critical and engaged socio historical scholarship is indispensable Transformation and Legitimation in Post apartheid Universities Reading discourses from Reitz is such a work Revisiting the notorious Reitz incident of 2008 when a satirical video made by students from the University of the Free State UFS to register their resistance to the racial integration of black students into historically white residences became public the text offers an analysis of the broader cultural and socio political context that constituted the conditions of possibility for the incident and its aftermath Attention is shifted from the principal actors in the original drama a handful of students and workers to a critical interrogation of the broader structures positions discourses and practices that fed into the Reitz incident reaching into the present with violent and racially charged student and worker protests in 2016 Van der Merwe and Van Reenen deliver a theoretically rich analysis of the anatomy of current contestations about race and transformation in higher education in South Africa the resultant legitimation crisis facing the UFS and South African universities more generally as well as ways to restore institutional legitimacy and reputation focusing on instituting deeper more durable change that

Creating Conditions for Student Success Magda Fourie-Malherbe, 2021-12-15 The various chapters of this book have brilliantly provided perspectives on creating conditions for success in higher education from a wide variety of stakeholders within a university environment The rich content comes from varying fields of study as well as academic development and student affairs directorates within the institution This is what is exciting about the book The diversity of focus in chapters makes the book relevant to anyone with interest in higher education matters From the opening to the closing chapter students are making a contribution on what the university has done or is doing for them to succeed or what it should consider doing to improve its service to students This touches on every environment that students find themselves in a university setting from residences to the classroom to commuter or off campus students The book s extended use of the capabilities approach and critical social theories has enabled it to provide nuances on not only the success of students but more importantly about how the higher education environment can transform itself to practices relevant for the sector today The various research studies in this book can benefit similar university contexts nationally and internationally

Challenging the Apartheids of Knowledge in Higher Education through Social Innovation Joana Bezerra,Craig Paterson,Sharli Paphitis,2021-05-12 In order to understand the relationship between social innovation and the reimagining of the knowledge economy necessary to reorient higher education most fully towards the public good we must draw from the experiences of those working on the front lines of change This collection represents diverse voices and disciplines drawing together the critical reflections of academics students and community partners from across South Africa The book seeks to bring together theoretical and practical lessons about how research methods can be used in socially innovative ways to challenge the apartheid of knowledge in higher education and to promote the democratization of the knowledge economy

A critical engagement with theological education in Africa Johannes J. Knoetze,Alfred R. Brunsdon,2022-02-07 The higher education landscape has arguably become one of the most arduous to traverse More so in the African context where a host of variables continuously challenge educators to reflect critically on their philosophies and practices as they engage an ever changing audience In this book a critical engagement with theological education in Africa is offered As the book originates from South Africa it is presented as a South African perspective although contributors are situated accross the African continent and abroad The common denominator is that all contributors are in some way or another invested in theological education in Africa The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the insights it offers on four main areas of theological education A historical and current orientation on theological education in Africa some paradigm shifts in theological education in Africa ministerial formation needs versus theological education challenges and a critical reflection on elective models and methods The book presents the original and innovative research of scholars for fellow scholars involved in theological higher education as it is grounded in the respective fields of interest of each contributor It contributes to a better understanding of the complex African theological higher education landscape that is also mindful of post COVID 19 realities Methodologically the work draws on a combination of methods including literature studies empirical work and in some cases sectional offerings from doctoral studies as indicated in the various chapters

Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Serges Djoyou Kamga,Gerard Emmanuel

Kamdem Kamga,Arnold Kwesiga,2024-02-15 Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga Serges Djoyou Kamga and Arnold Kwesiga explore a relatively new phenomenon namely referred to as illicit financial flows that aim to impoverish the African continent and prevent its economic development There is a direct relationship between illicit financial flows and failed initiatives to realize the right to development on the continent For instance in 2016 Africa received 41 billion towards public development while 50 billion left the continent through illicit financial flows The gap between recent economic achievements on the continent and its state of generalized underdevelopment coupled with rampant poverty corruption prolonged economic crisis and political instabilities signals an issue with resource allocations The systematic theft of resources by multinational corporations and criminal networks is a hard blow to the idea of people driven development in line with the Pan African vision of an integrated prosperous and peaceful Africa proclaimed by Agenda 2063 Right to Development and Illicit Financial Flows from Africa Dynamics Perspectives and Prospects provides insights into the dynamics and perspectives on illicit financial flows and its dire impacts on the right to development and development initiatives across the continent

Sea Cucumbers: The Sustainability of Emergent and Historical Resources Pedro M. Félix,Christopher M. Pearce, Arnold Rakaj, Ana Pombo,2025-03-13 Sea cucumbers are echinoderms with key ecological roles in marine ecosystems They are fished worldwide as food and for their various nutraceutical and pharmacological properties Over the years poorly managed fisheries in many countries have led to overexploitation and resulted in local population declines Nonetheless sea cucumber demand shows an increasing trend and consequently fishing grounds have expanded to new regions targeting new species and aggravating the problem It is important to acknowledge that present and future stock depletion is a reality under current exploitation conditions in many countries Aquaculture can have a crucial role in supporting the conservation of natural resources through reduced fishing pressure and wild stock re seeding and thus help meet global sea cucumber demand The historic low economic relevance of sea cucumbers in new fishing regions has left a knowledge gap regarding the biological and ecological aspects of species in those regions knowledge that is crucial for stock management and for developing appropriate rearing techniques Successful approaches to the management of sea cucumbers need to incorporate robust management strategies and mitigation measures that include aquaculture options for potential restocking or for enhanced production potential All these measures need to be developed prepared and applied across diverse user groups The global status and course of sea cucumber exploitation rationalizes the need for an increase in sea cucumber R D Topics like population status demographics habitat preferences distribution patterns growth strategies reproductive cycles and behavioural or life history traits are understudied but paramount for successful stock management and sustainable fisheries Additionally the development of sea cucumber aquaculture as an alternative to fisheries to supply international markets has led to a plethora of recent research on the subject Advances in the successful integration of deposit feeders such as sea cucumbers into rearing systems with organisms at other trophic levels in what is commonly known as Integrated Multi

Trophic Aquaculture IMTA have occurred and offer the promise of more efficient and sustainable production methods All these topics require novel research approaches for the validation and application of these methodologies Resilient Religion, Resilience and Heartbreaking Adversity LIT Verlag, 2023-01-05 A resilience theory on religion needs to answer four questions What defines the kind of adversity which is addressed in religion What is characteristic for processes of resilience in religion What defines resilient religion as outcome Which logic of inference epistemology based on our beliefs and experiences about reality binds these three elements together The book starts with mapping the field of resilience theory on religion by addressing all four questions The need for thinking about Christian resilience and the God symbol is addressed and the need to be explicitly contextual with regard to resilience in South Africa Next three types practices of religious acting are related to experiences of resilience namely preaching narrating and discerning In the last chapters the focus is on the way stories help to express feelings of experiences of crises tragedy and trauma But also how stories can help heal the broken heart Prof Chris A M Hermans is extraordinary professor in practical theology and missiology at the University of the Free State South Africa He is emeritus professor in pastoral theology at Radboud University the Netherlands and emeritus professor in empirical study of religion at Radboud University the Netherlands Prof Kobus W J Schoeman is professor of practical theology at the University of the Free State South Africa Vitamin D and Human Health Simon Spedding, 2019-02-21 This book is a printed edition of the Special Issue Vitamin D and Human Health that was published in Nutrients Teaching Digital Storytelling Sheila Marie Aird, Thomas P.
