The Marathon of the Messenger Jérôme Lemonnier,Nicolas Lemonnier,2023-11-01 The Covid 19 pandemic changed the world Indeed a real race took place worldwide between SARS CoV 2 on the one hand and researchers on the other especially those specializing in messenger RNA vaccines Four years after its emergence the pandemic is not over but some decisive battles have been won thanks to the great success of mRNA vaccines The Marathon of The Messenger presents the history of these mRNA vaccines combining a scientific background with historical and economic perspectives It appears that an important page in the history of these new vaccines was written in Europe thanks to the crucial work of German and French scientists this effort began in 1993 and continues to this day In the face of a prevailing single mindedness these researchers pushed through a new therapeutic concept and defined the biotechnological keys that would open the way to the production of therapeutic messenger RNA in the fight against cancer and viral infections Written for a broad audience and accompanied by humorous cartoons this book will appeal to anyone looking for scientific and historical answers about mRNA vaccines Readers will discover not only the technical and scientific knowledge of how these vaccines work but also the economic levers that were necessary to create this technology This book has been written in collaboration with Dr Steve Pascolo former director of CureVac and the RNA messenger expert Professor Chantal Pichon It also features a preface by Dr Pierre Meulien former director of the European Union public private partnership Innovative Medicines Initiative IMI

Nigro Sansonese,1994 Long ago the ancestors of the Greeks Romans and Hindus were one people living on the Eurasian steppes At the core of their religion was the shamanic trance a natural state but one in which consciousness achieves a profound level of inner awareness Over the course of millennia the Indo Europeans divided and migrated into Europe and the Indian subcontinent The knowledge of shamanic trance retreated from everyday awareness and was carried on in the form of myths and distilled into spiritual practices most notably in the Indian tradition of yoga J Nigro Sansonese compares the myths of Greece as well as those of the Judeo Christian tradition with the yogic practices of India and concludes that myths are esoteric descriptions of what occurs within the human body especially the human nervous system during trance In this light the myths provide a detailed map of the shamanic state of consciousness that is our natural heritage This book carries on from the works of Carl Jung and Joseph Campbell to show how the portrayal of consciousness embodied in myth can be extended to a reappraisal of the laws of physics before they are descriptions of the world these laws like myths are descriptions of the human nervous system
