Distributed

Leadership Alma Harris, 2009-03-17 Alma Harris The role of school leadership is currently preoccupied with the idea of distributed leadership Few ideas it seems have provoked as much attention debate and controversy Whatever your position on distributed leadership and you cannot fail to have one it is irrefutable that distributed leadership has become the leadership idea of the moment Yet it is an idea that can be traced back as far as the mid 20s and possibly earlier So why the interest Part of the answer can be found in a move away from theorizing and empirical enquiry focused on the single leader This shift has undoubtedly been fuelled by structural changes within schools and across school systems that have resulted in alternative models or forms of leadership practice Evidence highlights how those occupying formal leadership positions are increasingly recognizing the limitations of existing structural arrangements to secure organizational growth and transformation Fullan et al 2007 Harris et al 2008 Chapman et al 2008 As a consequence many heads and principals are actively restructuring realigning and redesigning leadership practice in their school Harris 2008 While the terminology to describe such changes varies the core principle is one of extending or sharing leadership practice While scholars have long argued for the need to move beyond those at the top of organizations in order to examine leadership Barnard 1968 Katz and Kahn 1966 until relatively recently much of the school leadership literature has tended to focus upon the head or the principal

Academic Framework for 21st-Century Schooling: Promoting Global Peace and Harmony Mukhopadhyay, Marmar, Kundu, Arnab, 2023-10-16 In an era fraught with existential threats Academic Framework for 21st Century Schooling Promoting Global Peace and Harmony answers the urgent call for a new path forward The UN Secretary General's recent address echoing decades of warnings from UNESCO has underscored the dire state of our world Global warming pollution terrorism unchecked population growth discrimination refugee migration consumerism and the ominous specter of weapons of mass destruction loom large in an age marked by nationalism and imperialism The very fabric of human existence is unraveling and even the UN's well intentioned MDG and SDG initiatives are in jeopardy This book authored by esteemed scholars proposes a transformation of global education as the antidote to this crisis It champions the cultivation of a fresh generation with essential attributes like critical thinking empathy respect for diversity and a profound sense of global responsibility Schools are envisioned as the crucible for shaping these future citizens At its core this book offers a well founded academic framework for global peace and harmony education addressing the intricacies of 21st century schooling curriculum transformation global best practices and the vision of happy schooling It is a clarion call to scholars and educators to lead the way toward a world where peace and harmony are not just ideals but the very foundation upon which humanity thrives Our world and future generations depend on this transformative journey one we must embark upon without delay
