Ross Bartlett, Kate Jones, 2022-09-23 Time to challenge your current thinking about ministry Probe your assumptions about congregational well being Address your assumptions Open the possibility of unleashing a significant new wave of Christian mission Find new fulfilling opportunities In our time of specialization it is of little wonder that we have left the trained and skilled professionals in charge of our churches and ministries But did you know that full time ministry is a relatively recent phenomenon It's Real Ministry How Part Time and Bi Vocational Clergy Are Challenging and Empowering the Church reveals the richness that has existed and can exist again in part time and bi vocational ministry It breathes hope and richness into what are often seen as depressed or impoverished communities of faith And it offers insight into where congregations and clergy need to make choices and adaptations Anchored in the findings of the largest survey of part time bi vocational clergy that has been undertaken in a mainline Canadian denomination Its Real Ministry begins to address the current issue of declining congregational attendance delves into the meaning that part time and bi vocational ministries might have for local communities of faith and discusses new ways of imagining leadership While the data is specific to the United Church of Canada this study offers points of reflection for many denominations in Canada and beyond offering positive insight and a starting point for clergy and laity to rethink of what they consider as age old traditions
