Historical Atlases traces how these collections of maps for history maps whose sole purpose was to illustrate some historical moment or scene came into being. Beginning in the sixteenth century and continuing down to the late nineteenth. Walter Goffart discusses milestones in the origins of historical atlases as well as individual maps illustrating historical events in alternating paired chapters. He focuses on maps of the medieval period because the development of maps for history hinged particularly on portrayals of this segment of the postclassical modern past. Goffart concludes the book with a detailed catalogue of more than 700 historical maps and atlases produced from 1570 to 1870.
