anthropology and ethnohistory the commentary approaches the text from a variety of perspectives how it was created how it relates to history and culture and what religious insights it provides The commentary accepts the best modern scholarship which focuses on a particular region of Mesoamerica as the most plausible location for the Book of Mormon's setting For the first time that location its peoples cultures and historical trends are used as the backdrop for reading the text The historical background is not presented as proof but rather as an explanatory context The commentary does not forget Mormon's purpose in writing It discusses the doctrinal and theological aspects of the text and highlights the way in which Mormon created it to meet his goal of convincing the Jew and Gentile that Jesus is the Christ the Eternal God
