Teaching and Learning in Maths Classrooms Chiara Andrà,Domenico Brunetto,Esther Levenson,Peter Liljedahl,2017-05-03 The book presents a selection of the most relevant talks given at the 21st MAVI conference held at the Politecnico di Milano The first section is dedicated to classroom practices and beliefs regarding those practices taking a look at prospective or practicing teachers views of different practices such as decision making the roles of explanations problem solving patterning and the use of play Of major interest to MAVI participants is the relationship between teachers professed beliefs and classroom practice aspects that provide the focus of the second section Three papers deal with teacher change which is notoriously difficult even when the teachers themselves are interested in changing their practice In turn the book s third section centers on the undercurrents of teaching and learning mathematics which can surface in various situations causing tensions and inconsistencies The last section of this book takes a look at emerging themes in affect related research with a particular focus on attitudes towards assessment The book offers a valuable resource for all teachers and researchers working in this area

Educating the next generation of scientists Great Britain: National Audit Office,2010-11-12 The Department for Education has made good progress in improving take up and achievement in areas such as A Level maths and GCSE Triple Science However there has been less success in increasing the number of science teachers improving take up of A Level physics and raising the standards of school science facilities There is evidence that pupils taking Triple Science GCSE are more likely than those studying combined science to choose science subjects at A Level and to achieve higher grades While starting from a low base pupil take up of the three individual sciences has increased by almost 150 per cent in the last five years However by June 2009 almost half of secondary schools still did not offer Triple Science Take up of chemistry and maths A Level has already exceeded the targets for 2014 set by the Department but take up of physics A Level has increased only slightly since 2005 06 Achievement increased across all science subjects and maths at A Level between 2002 03 and 2009 10 Until recently the Department had a target to ensure that all school laboratories were up to a good or excellent standard by 2010 However it did not collect routine data to measure progress against this target and the most recent research available found that science facilities were inadequate in around a quarter of secondary schools Although recruitment of science graduates to train as specialist teachers has increased the Department is not on course to meet the targets set by the previous Government for recruiting more mathematics and physics teachers by 2014

The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords, 2014

Achieving Further Daniel Slosberg, 2016-01-07 Do you have students who are far ahead of their peers in math Are you a teacher who differentiates for those students by giving them additional topics but without knowing what topics they have already covered over the past years and without a plan for the topics they should cover in the next years Are you a head of department who wants to streamline differentiation throughout your math department to ensure talented students have a more uniform experience as they move from teacher to teacher and have a goal they are working towards year after year Are you a principal who wants to improve the results of your students in HL Math and to have students from your school start succeeding in HL Further Math If so this book describes a program to prepare IB Middle Years Program MYP students to enter the Diploma Program DP taking HL Further Math as their only math course The program is modeled on the ATYP program from Kalamazoo MI started by Carol McCarthy

Support Not

Surveillance: How to solve the teacher retention crisis Mary Bousted, 2022-04-08 Why are so many teachers leaving the profession increasingly early in their careers What harm is being done to pupils educational prospects by persistent teacher shortages Why are teachers held uniquely responsible for the effects of poverty on children s progress and attainment What are the unintended consequences of rushed government education policy making And what can be done about all of the above Supported by the latest international and national evidence Support Not Surveillance seeks to address these important questions Laying bare how the inadequacy of Westminster policies is compounded by an unfair Ofsted inspection regime Dr Mary Bousted draws on her years of expertise and access to decision makers to expose the gap between ministerial rhetoric and the daily reality encountered by teachers in their classrooms across England Ending on a set of proposals to move beyond the seemingly perennial crisis in teacher recruitment and retention Support Not Surveillance is an unflinching call to end the failed experiment of government interventionism in classrooms
