Meyer,2021-07-05 This study uncovers the traditions behind the formative Classic Sh ngsh Venerated Documents It is the first to establish these traditions Sh Documents as a historically evolving practice of thought production By focusing on the literary form of the argument it interprets the Sh as fluid text material that embodies the ever changing cultural capital of projected conceptual communities By showing how these communities actualised the Sh according to their changing visions of history and evolving group interests the study establishes that by the Warring States period ca 453 221 BC the Sh had become a literary genre employed by diverse groups to legitimize their own arguments Through forms of textual performance the Sh gave even peripheral communities the means to participate in political discourse by conferring their ideas with ancient authority Analysing this dynamic environment of socio political and philosophical change this study speaks to the Early China field as well as to those interested in meaning production and foundational text formation more widely

Student Study Guide to The South Asian World Jonathan Mark Kenoyer, Kimberly Heuston, Kimberley Burton Heuston,2005-11 The Student Study Guide is an important and unique component that is available for each of the eight books in The World in Ancient Times series Each of the Student Study Guides is designed to be used with the student book at school or sent home for homework assignments The activities in the Student Study Guide will help students get the most out of their history books Each Student Study Guide includes chapter by chapter two page lessons that use a variety of interesting activities to help a student master history and develop important reading and study skills Korea's Premier Collection of Classical Literature ,2019-03-31 This is the first book in English to offer an extensive introduction to the Tongmun's n Selections of Refined Literature of Korea the largest and most important Korean literary collection created prior to the twentieth century as well as translations of essays from key chapters The Tongmun's n was compiled in 1478 by S K j ng 1420 1488 and other Chos n literati at the command of King S ngjong r 1469 1494 It was modeled after the celebrated Chinese anthology Wen Xuan and contains poetry and prose in an extensive array of styles and genres The Translators

Introduction begins by describing the general structure of the Tongmunŭn and contextualizes literary output in Korea within the great sweep of East Asian literature from the eighth to the fifteenth centuries. The entire Tongmunŭn as well as all of the essays selected for translation were written in hanmun as opposed to Korean vernacular, which points to a close literary connection between the continent and the peninsula. The Introduction goes on to discuss the genres contained in the Tongmunŭn and examines style as revealed through prosody. The translation of two of these genres, treatises and discourses in four books of the Tongmunŭn, showcases prose writing and the intellectual concerns of the age. Through their discussions of morality, nature, and the fantastic, we see Daoist, Buddhist, and Confucian themes at work in essays by some of Korea's most distinguished writers among them Yi Kyubo, Yi Saek, Yi Chehyŏn, and Ch'ng Tojŏn. The translations also include annotations and extensive cross references to classical allusions in the Chinese canon, making the present volume an essential addition to any East Asian literature collection.
