Education, Training and the Future of Work II Mike Flude, Sandy Sieminski, 2013-10-18 This volume focuses on the recent changes in education and training policy mainly in the UK The considerable developments of past years and the ways in which they have affected both education and training are examined The contributors analyse the methods by which we educate our workforce and look closely at the kind of training now offered to those in work The chapters in this reader cover the role of the state how economic factors influence education national education and training policy the political factor Other countries including Germany are looked at and there is reflection on the ways in which the new industry led qualifications such as NVQs have fared There is careful analysis as to how much the political climate of the time influenced developments There is thorough research to back up claims made throughout the book and many practical examples are referred to What emerges is an incisive examination of current trends in education and the workplace The Local Turn in Tourism Freya Higgins-Desbiolles, Bobbie Chew Bigby, 2022-11-10 In a world that is subject to rapid change and cascading crises this book considers the vital importance of local communities to grounded just and sustainable tourism futures Embracing local tourism as relational the contributors examine how tourism can be reoriented to better connect people place and planet This local turn starts by centring local communities at the heart of tourism and identifies ways to ensure local community rights and benefits in tourism Presenting concepts case studies and practitioner insights the chapters explore what putting locals first might mean the constraints of markets and the promise of alternatives tours and turns offering possibilities for circles cycles and connections approaches for democratising tourism and building an ethos of relatedness through a relational imperative to face the future together The introduction and Chapter 1 are free to download as open access publications under a CC BY NC ND licence You can access them here Freya Higgins Desbiolles and Bobbie Chew Bigby Introduction Embracing the Local Turn in Tourism to Empower Communities <https://zenodo.org/record/7234710> Y1Kd8nbMLcs Chapter 1 Bobbie Chew Bigby Joseph Edgar and Freya Higgins Desbiolles Place based Governance in Tourism Placing Local Communities at the Centre of Tourism <https://zenodo.org/record/7234717> Y1KpinbMLcs Waikiki Beach Erosion Control Reevaluation Report, 2002 Resilience and Food Security in a Food Systems Context Christophe Béné, Stephen Devereux, 2023-03-25 This open access book compiles a series of chapters written by internationally recognized experts known for their in depth but critical views on questions of resilience and food security The book assesses rigorously and critically the contribution of the concept of resilience in advancing our understanding and ability to design and implement development interventions in relation to food security and humanitarian crises For this the book departs from the narrow beaten tracks of agriculture and trade which have influenced the mainstream debate on food security for nearly 60 years and adopts instead a wider more holistic perspective framed around food systems The foundation for this new approach is the recognition that in the current post globalization era the food and nutritional security of the world s population no longer depends just on the performance of agriculture and policies on trade but rather on the capacity of the entire food system to produce process transport and distribute safe affordable and nutritious food for all in ways that remain environmentally sustainable In that context adopting a food system perspective provides a more appropriate frame as it incites to broaden the conventional thinking and to acknowledge the systemic nature of the different processes and actors involved This book is written for a large audience from academics to policymakers students to practitioners This is an open access book

Food Wars Michael Heasman,Tim Lang,2004-04-26 Food Wars is a heartening book which calls for a radical change in the way the world feeds itself It offers a blueprint for a future where nobody goes to bed hungry Derek Cooper founder presenter of the BBC s Food Programme An important book that should be read by everyone who cares about how the way food is produced affects our own health as well as that of the environment and our national economies Marion Nestle author of Food Politics and Paulette Goddard Professor of Nutrition Food Studies and Public Health New York University The emergence of global markets has a far reaching impact on what we eat and on health food security social justice and quality of life What matters now is not just what we eat but how and where it has been produced distributed and processed and the assumptions upon which this production is based a global politics of food and health Food Wars argues that two conflicting paradigms one developing food through integrating the life sciences the other though ecology are battling to replace the dominant industrial productionist model of the 20th century both grappling to attract investment public support and policy legitimacy over the appropriate use of biology and food technologies

The Southern Appalachians Susan L. Yarnell,1998 Classic Maya Provincial Politics Lisa J. LeCount,Jason Yaeger,2010-09-15

Most treatments of large Classic Maya sites such as Caracol and Tikal regard Maya political organization as highly centralized Because investigations have focused on civic buildings and elite palaces however a critical part of the picture of Classic Maya political organization has been missing The contributors to this volume chart the rise and fall of the Classic Maya center of Xunantunich paying special attention to its changing relationships with the communities that comprised its hinterlands They examine how the changing relationships between Xunantunich and the larger kingdom of Naranjo affected the local population the location of their farms and houses and the range of economic and subsistence activities in which both elites and commoners engaged They also examine the ways common people seized opportunities and met challenges offered by a changing political landscape The rich archaeological data in this book show that incorporating subject communities and people and keeping them incorporated was an on going challenge to ancient Maya rulers Until now archaeologists have lacked integrated regional data and a fine grained chronology in which to document short term shifts in site occupations subsistence strategies and other important practices of the daily life of the Maya This book provides a revised picture of Maya politics one of different ways of governing and alliance formation among dominant centers provincial polities and hinterland communities
