Positive Alpha Generation Claude Diderich, 2009-02-18 Diderich describes tools and techniques which can be used to develop quantitative models for actively managing investment products and focuses on how theoretical models can and should be used in practice He describes the interaction between different elements of an investment process s value chain in a single and consistent framework A key focus is placed on illustrating the theory with real world examples At the end of the book the reader will be capable of designing or enhancing an investment process for an investment or portfolio managers products from start to finish Increased pressure to add value through investments makes this a hot topic in the investment world Combined theoretical and practical approach makes this book appealing to a wide audience of quants and investors The only book to show how to design and implement quantitative models for gaining positive alpha

School-University-Community Collaboration for Civic Education and Engagement in the Democratic Project R. Martin Reardon, Jack Leonard, 2022-05-01 The Campaign for the Civic Mission of Schools 2011 lamented the lack of high quality civic education in America s schools that leaves millions of citizens without the wherewithal to make sense of our system of government p 4 Preus et al 2016 cited literature to support their observation of a decline in high quality civic education and a low rate of civic engagement of young people p 67 Shapiro and Brown 2018 asserted that civic knowledge and public engagement is at an all time low p 1 Writing as a college senior Flaherty 2020 urged educators to bravely interpret national local and even school level incidents as chances for enhanced civic education and to discuss them with students in both formal and casual settings p 6 In this eighth volume in the Current Perspectives on School University Community Research series we feature the work of brave educators who are engaged in schooluniversity community collaborative educational endeavors Authors focus on a wide range of projects oriented to civic education writ large some that have been completed and some that are still in progress but all authors evince the passion for civic education that underpins engagement in the democratic project

Civic Education in the Elementary Grades Dana Mitra, Stephanie C. Serriere, 2015-10-16 Based on a 5 year study of an elementary school with socioeconomic diversity the authors provide an active model of civic engagement organized into three settings Classroom School and Community Each chapter includes an overview of what research has demonstrated about civic engagement in that particular space offers detailed descriptions of activities and closes with lessons for practice This case study demonstrates how putting civics at the center of the curriculum gives purpose and motivation to traditional academic learning including tested subjects such as reading writing and mathematics As former elementary school teachers the authors focus on what is possible in schools rather than a romantic vision of what schools could be Classroom teachers school principals community members and teacher educators can use this resource to foster a deeper richer understanding of what is entailed in civic life Electronic Government Marijn Janssen,Hans Jochen Scholl,Maria A.
