challenges facing old economy businesses like car manufacturers as they go online and uncover the Internet's dirty little secret: porn, the most profitable industry on the Web. Here are explorations of the many new business models for working on the Web from eating your own dog food to showing customers how well your technology works to ensuring that customer service reigns supreme even in the New Economy and articles that highlight how even in a digital world things like pricing structures and the difficulties of starting a business remain constant. Here are interviews with e-commerce pioneers like the founders of Yahoo as well as articles that tell the tales of those who have taken the e-commerce plunge like Merrill Lynch CEO David H. Komansky and Curran Catalog founder Jeff Curran. And a series of stories shows how technology has changed the way we do just about everything from staying in touch to doing homework to having babies. Collected and presented here for the first time in e-book format, E-Commerce is a searchable, portable and valuable resource from the award-winning staff of The Wall Street Journal.
