Roots Quest Jackie Hogan, 2019-01-15 America is in the midst of a genealogy boom In the last thirty years the number of Americans who said they were very interested in family history jumped from 29% to 87% Online genealogy sites like Ancestry com went from being a small genealogical research website into a NASDAQ listed corporation with more than two million subscribers In Roots Quest sociologist Jackie Hogan digs into this genealogy boom to ask why we are so interested in our family history She goes beyond simple demographics retiring baby boomers with more time on their hands to show that the surging popularity of genealogy is in part a response to some of the large scale social changes transforming our lives such as the increasingly virtual nature of social life and the sense of rootlessness these transformations provoke Roots Quest explores the way our increasingly rootless society fuels the quest for authenticity for deep history and for an elemental sense of belonging for roots Mary Stephens Corbishley MBE, 1905-1995 Ian M. Stewart, 2010 This biography is about Mary S Corbishley who pioneered an unorthodox method of teaching young deaf children speech lipreading and English She believed that these three fundamental elements formed an ideal beginning of preparing deaf children from an early age for higher education and after school life in the hearing world where they had equal rights with hearing peers She was a devout Christian woman whose calling for this enterprising adventure was inspired by the Bible and her faith in God As a young woman in 1929 she unexpectedly left home and embarked on a long journey which was to last for the rest of her life and career as a teacher of young deaf children Having courageously set up her Oral School for deaf children in 1939 she tirelessly fought against ignorance officialdom scepticism and prejudice and triumphed in establishing a well loved and highly praised School at Mill Hall in Cuckfield in 1948 which was to enjoy fame and a world wide reputation for 50 years until its much lamented closure in 1996 Her work revolved around deaf children whom she loved all her life 48 Liberal Lies About American History Larry Schweikart, 2008-09-04 A historian debunks four dozen PC myths about our nation s past Over the last forty years history textbooks have become more and more politically correct and distorted about our country s past argues professor Larry Schweikart The result he says is that students graduate from high school and even college with twisted beliefs about economics foreign policy war religion race relations and many other subjects As he did in his popular A Patriot s History of the United States Professor Schweikart corrects liberal bias by rediscovering facts that were once widely known He challenges distorted books by name and debunks forty eight common myths A sample The founders wanted to create a wall of separation between church and state Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation only because he needed black soldiers Truman ordered the bombing of Hiroshima to intimidate the Soviets with atomic diplomacy Mikhail Gorbachev
