

Answer Key To Vista SuperSite Lesson 2

Introduction

Introducing Vista through Windows Setup has always represented a challenge to Vista users. Before Vista, Vista's language support was limited to the languages that were supported by Windows XP. However, Vista's language support has been expanded to include all 31 languages supported by Windows XP, plus the new languages that are supported by Windows XP. This means that Vista's language support is now the same as Windows XP's language support. This means that Vista's language support is now the same as Windows XP's language support. This means that Vista's language support is now the same as Windows XP's language support.

At Vista's launch, users could not install Vista on a system that was not running Windows XP. This was because Vista's language support was limited to the languages that were supported by Windows XP. However, Vista's language support has been expanded to include all 31 languages supported by Windows XP, plus the new languages that are supported by Windows XP. This means that Vista's language support is now the same as Windows XP's language support. This means that Vista's language support is now the same as Windows XP's language support.
