
Exam 1 (chapters 1-3) Psych 201 BYU-I 2025 With 100% Correct Answers

Continuous development - correct answers ✓✓ babies and adults have a similar understanding and response to the world; however, there is a learning curve where the skills/abilities of adults are higher than babies, but babies can gradually get there.

Discontinuous development - correct answers ✓✓ is a development where human beings go through stages. Each stage is different at infancy, adolescents, and adulthood. That perspective or understanding of the world changes as the person gets older.

Nature - correct answers ✓✓ means that the things within (internal factors) affect the kind of person we are. Meaning the genetic make up of ourselves. For example, traits and talents that have been passed down by our parents

Nurture - correct answers ✓✓ means that the environment around us affects the kind of person we become. For example, culture, where we live, or what family we were born in. It's more of an external factor

Age-graded influences - correct answers ✓✓ are events that happen during a certain age. For example, babies start talking between 1 to 2 years old. As well as certain events that happen during a certain age. For example, going to college can influence you, which usually occurs around 18 years old.

History-Graded influences - correct answers ✓✓ are related to time. Usually an era or "generation" like "millennials" or "baby boomers". Different eras or generations of people have different views that can affect you. I feel like this can also be the time of year you're born. Some people associate this with your "horoscope" or "zodiac" sign.

Nonnormative influences - correct answers ✓✓ are influences that are irregular or don't usually occur. For example, Sofie didn't marry until much later in her life which was very uncommon to do in the time that she lived. In addition, she sought schooling more than marriage which was another irregularity in society at the time that she lived for a woman to gain a higher education than to be a mother and a wife.
