The composers work in a variety of genres including classical, jazz, multimedia or collaborative forms for the stage, film and video games. Their interviews illuminate questions about the status of women composers in America, the role of women in musical performance and education, the creative process and inspiration, the experiences and qualities that contemporary composers bring to their craft and balancing creative and personal lives. Candidly sharing their experiences, advice and views, these vibrant, thoughtful and creative women open new perspectives on the prospects and possibilities of making music in a changing world.
