

A detailed black and white architectural illustration of a Victorian-style house. The house features a prominent square tower with a conical roof and a small cupola on top. The tower has a balcony and decorative woodwork. The main house has a steep gabled roof, a large front porch with ornate brackets, and a smaller turret on the side. The illustration is set against a solid brown background.

Architecture in the United States, 1800-1850 William Barksdale Maynard, 2002-01-01 This study traces the development of American architecture from the age of Jefferson to the antebellum era providing a survey of this important period W Barksdale Maynard overturns the long accepted notions that the chief theme of early 19th century American architecture was a patriotic desire to escape from European influence and that competing styles chiefly reflected the American struggle for cultural uniqueness Instead deep and consistent aesthetic ties especially with England shaped American architecture and house designs Maynard shows that the Greek Revival in particular was an international phenomenon with American achievements inspired by British example and with taste taking precedence over patriotism

Restoring Your Historic House Scott T Hanson, 2023-06-01 Although there are other books about renovating old houses this is the first that prioritizes the identification and preservation of the historic character defining features of a house as a starting point in the process That is the purpose of this book to describe and illustrate a best practices approach for updating historic homes for modern life in ways that do not attempt to turn an old house into a new one The book also suggests many ways to save money in the process without settling for cheap or inappropriate solutions Scott Hanson is a historic building preservation professional and has 40 years experience rehabilitating historic houses He has illustrated this authoritative book with hundreds of step by step photos illustrations charts and decision making guides Interspersed throughout are photo essays of 13 restored historic houses representing a range of periods and architectural styles Italianate Victorian Queen Anne Federal Colonial Colonial Revival Greek Revival Ranch Adobe Craftsman Shingle and Rustic With interior and exterior photography by David Clough these multi page features show what can be achieved when a historic home is renovated with a desire to preserve or restore as much historic character as possible
