There is a certain, often, heated protest against the use of the word "cultural studies" in the title of the book. The protest is based on the fact that the word "cultural studies" has been used in a variety of contexts and for a variety of purposes. The book is not a study of "cultural studies" as a discipline, but a study of the ways in which the word "cultural studies" has been used in a variety of contexts and for a variety of purposes.
