Army during World War II highlighting their specialized functions and logistical impact In the late 1930s the U S Army began a significant overhaul of its vehicle fleet shaping the logistics backbone of World War II Affecting this effort were two major schools of thought regarding logistical support some experts proposed the trailer or semi trailer which had a physical separation between the mechanical part of the truck and the rear technical part containing supplies or specialist equipment opponents encouraged the use of compact and inseparable assemblies to save time in the field Both types of trucks would be used during World War I complete trucks intended for the front and its immediate rear the lines of communications and the staging area being the domain of tractors and semi trailers This book examines all the different weight categories of tractor
