

The Cold War review - Part 3

1. In the mid-1980s Germany was still divided between a free, democratic side (West Germany), and the communist side (East Germany). The Berlin Wall was still there, put up in the 1960s by _____ Germany to keep its people from fleeing to freedom in the non-communist side of Berlin.

2. Across Europe another line of fences and concrete barriers built by the communist countries stretched for hundreds of miles. Its purpose was to keep people in those countries from leaving. This line of barriers, which generally divided Eastern Europe from the free countries of Western Europe, was often called the _____.

3. The biggest fear all through the Cold War period was that the tension and the conflicts involving the U.S. and the Soviet Union might lead to a war with _____ (atomic) weapons.

4. In 1987 President Ronald Reagan made a famous speech while standing next to the Berlin Wall. He said the communist system had proven to be a complete _____ everywhere it existed.

5. In his speech at the Berlin Wall, President Reagan called on Soviet leaders to change their system of government, work toward a peaceful end to Cold War tensions, and to "_____ down this wall!"

6. In 1989 the communist system began _____ throughout the Soviet controlled nations in Europe, and not long after, in the Soviet Union itself.

7. As the communist system in Eastern Europe fell apart in 1989, German people on _____ sides of the Berlin Wall began to knock it down with sledge hammers. To the surprise of almost everyone, communist leaders decided not to try to stop them.

8. The collapse of communism led to the breakup of the Soviet Union itself in 1991. Many parts of the former Soviet Union became new and independent _____. Only a few countries in the world, such as Cuba, North Korea, and China, had communist governments after the end of the Cold War.
