

Types of Economic Systems

Instructions: Complete the chart on the characteristics of the three types of economic systems noted below.

Categories	Traditional	Command	Market
Who or what decides what goods and services will be produced?	the people decide what will be produced based on custom or religion	the govt has complete control without consideration of people's needs	the people decide without government concern
who or what determines how much or anything will be produced?	the amount of nations members will determine how much will be produced	the government determines what and how much to produce	the business owner will determine how much will be produced
Who or what decides how goods and services will be distributed?	the goods and services will be distributed to everyone to share the tradition	the government decides how good and services will be distributed	the business owner decides where his or her goods are distributed
Who owns the factors of production? (land, labor, capital)	the eldest generation owns the factors of production being that they "have the most knowledge"	the government owns all the factors of production	the business owner is in control of all the factors of production
Who or what determines the prices of the goods and services produced?	whomever has passed down the customs determines the prices	the government determines the prices of all goods and services	the business owner determines how much he or she will sell their product or service for
What is the role of the government in this economic system?	the government has very little say being that it is based on traditions	government plays a major role being that they control all	the government has no say therefore they have no role
What are the advantages of this type of economic system?	the advantages are some traditions can be passed down for many generations	the government is always in control and is aware of everything happening	you are self driven and the proceeds go to you and there are no restrictions
What are the disadvantages of this type of economic system?	the lack of wanting to modernize because their tradition is all they know	people have no say in their government and their needs are never met	if something were to go wrong the government cannot get involved
