ALLAH IS NOT OBLIGED TO BE FAIR ABOUT ALL THE THINGS HE DOES HERE ON EARTH.

There are the words of the boy soldier Boubou in the final scenes given by one of Africa's most celebrated writers, Ahmadou Kourouma. When ten-year-old Boubou's mother dies, he leaves his native village in the Ivory Coast, accompanied by the warrier and monk Kourouma, to search for his aunt Malou. Crossing the border into Liberia, they are seized by rebels and forced into military service. Boubou is given a Kalashnikov, minimal rations of food, a small supply of drugs, and a tiny wage. Fighting in a chaotic civil war alongside many other boys, Boubou sees death, torture, disease, hunger, and violence but somehow manages to retain his own sanity. Wise and unforgettable, describing you filled with laughter, Allah Is Not Obligated reveals the ways in which children's innocence and youth are compromised by war.

"Kourouma writes with brutal and obscene frankness reminiscent of Calisto in this powerfully tragic novel about a West African child soldier."

—Publishers Weekly (starred review)

"Shocking and deeply moving. . . . An African Lord of the Flies."

—The Guardian (London)

"Fierce, angry, an incredible book. Though it is a work of fiction, in a way it is not. Kourouma brings to life the voice of the child soldier."

Allah Is Not Obligated

Ahmadou Kourouma (called "one of the major figures of contemporary African literature" by Le Figaro) was born in 1927 in the small town of Bouaké in the Ivory Coast. As a young man he fought in the French colonial army in Indochina and studied science in France. Returning to the Ivory Coast, Kourouma worked in insurance but did not stay there for long. He was jailed over ideological clashes with the government; subsequently he spent many years in exile.

Kourouma was a playwright and the author of four novels, of which Allah Is Not Obligated is the most recent and winner of the prestigious Prix Renaudot. Waiting for the Wild Beasts to Die won the Prix du Livre Inter in 1999. Ahmadou Kourouma died in 2003.

Allah Is Not Obligated:

Allah Is Not Obligated Ahmadou Kourouma, 2007 A powerful and affecting novel of Africa's child soldiers by French Africa's pre-eminent novelist Birahima is ten years old. He lives in the Ivory Coast. He is a soldier. In Ahmadou Kourouma's extraordinary novel Birahima tells his story. At the age of ten his mother dies and Birahima leaves his native village accompanied by the sorcerer-crook Yacouba to search for his aunt Mahan. Crossing the border into Liberia they are seized by a rebel force and pressed into military service. Birahima is given a Kalashnikov, minimal rations of food, a small supply of dope, and a tiny wage. Fighting in a totally chaotic civil war and alongside many other boys, some no older than himself, Birahima sees death, torture, amputation, and madness but somehow manages to retain his own sanity. Ahmadou Kourouma's masterpiece is powerful, terrible, and frequently bitterly funny. From the Hardcover edition. Mediating Violence from Africa George S. MacLeod, 2023-10 Mediating Violence from Africa explores how African and non-African Francophone authors, filmmakers, editors, and scholars have packaged, interpreted, and filmed the violent histories of post-Cold War Francophone Africa. This violence, much of which unfolded in front of Western television cameras, included the use of child soldiers facilitated by the Soviet Union's castoff Kalashnikov rifles, the rise of Islamist terrorism in West Africa, and the horrific genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda. Through close readings of fictionalized child soldier narratives, cinematic representations of Islamist militants, genocide survivor testimony, and Western scholarship, George S. MacLeod analyzes the ways Francophone African authors and filmmakers, as well as their editors and scholarly critics, negotiate the aesthetic, political, cultural, and ethical implications of making these traumatic stories visible. MacLeod argues for the need to periodize these productions within a post-Cold War framework to emphasize how shifts in post-1989 political discourse are echoed, contested, or subverted by contemporary Francophone authors, filmmakers, and Western scholars. The questions raised in Mediating Violence from Africa are of vital importance today. How the world engages with and responds to stories of recent violence and loss from Africa has profound implications for the affected communities and individuals. More broadly, in an era in which stories and images of violence, from terror attacks to school shootings to police brutality, are disseminated almost instantly and with minimal context, these theoretical questions have implications for debates surrounding the ethics of representing trauma, the politicization of memory, and Africa's place in a global, as opposed to a postcolonial or Euro-African, economic and political landscape. New Perspectives on African Childhood De-Valera NYM Botchway, Awo Sarpong, Charles Quist-Adade, 2019-09-05 What does it mean to be a child in Africa? In the detached Western media narratives of penury, wickedness, and death, have dominated portrayals of African childhood. The hegemonic lens of the West has failed to take into account the intricacies of not only what it means to be an African child in local and culturally specific contexts but also African childhood in general. Challenging colonial discourses, this edited volume guides the reader through different comprehensions and perspectives of childhood in Africa. Using a blend of theory, empiricism, and history, the contributors to this volume offer studies from a range of fields including African literature Afro centric psychology and sociology Importantly in its eclectic geographical coverage of Africa this book unashamedly presents the good the bad and the ugly of African childhood The resilience creativity pains and triumphs of African childhood are skilfully woven together to present the myriad of lived experiences and aspirations of children from across Africa As an important contribution to African childhood studies this book has the potential to be used by policymakers to shape sustain or change socio cultural economic and education systems that accommodate African childhood dynamics and experiences at different levels
