Reaves, 2007-11-05 Diane Reaves attempts to share the painful events of her personal tragedies endured as a survivor of severe child abuse at the hands of her own mother As well as enduring the violent suicide of her father Wishing to convey to many other survivors their own ability to forgive the unforgivable Believing that all survivors have the chance to break the cycle instead of repeating it With each story shared this survivor hopes to teach others that something good can come out of something bad      Cartography of Faith Dr. Dixil Lisbeth Rodriguez, 2024-02-05 Stories are the very fabric of life and ministry and they reiterate that God is present in our lives Dr Dixil Lisbeth Rodriguez has collected stories of her learning interactions with others and of her observations within the scope of academia and chaplaincy She was driven to do so by a desire to find lessons from Scripture in everyday life In this book she leads readers on a reflective journey of faith sharing moments where she has been inspired and engaged by the divine While such encounters are often brief they can bring significant meaning to life engaging questions the reader may be challenged and familiar with She shares her insights with the belief that we are not irrelevant to God and that each one of us should search for the obvious work of the Spirit in our lives and in that of others That can be a true challenge in a world that moves at a fast pace and where technology tends to deprive us of a meaningful direct and personal connection with others These stories are a testimony that human beings are not abandoned by God they provide evidence that God is active in our individual lives through the Holy Spirit
