Anh Do Happiest Refugee:

The Happiest Refugee Anh Do, 2011-03-22 The bestselling laugh out loud reach for your hanky story of one of Australia's best loved comedians The Happiest Refugee Anh Do, 2016-07-01 The Happiest Refugee by Anh Do Liz Waud, 2013

The Happiest Refugee Anh Do, 2011-03-22 Anh Do nearly didn't make it to Australia. His entire family came close to losing their lives on the sea as they escaped from war-torn Vietnam in an overcrowded boat. But nothing—not murderous pirates nor the imminent threat of death by hunger, disease, or dehydration as they drifted for days—could quench their desire to make a better life in the country they had dreamed about. Life in Australia was hard: an endless succession of back-breaking work, crowded rooms, ruthless landlords, and making do with everything. But there was a loving extended family and always friends and play and something to laugh about for Anh, his brother Khoa, and their sister Tram. Things got harder when their father left home when Anh was only nine; they felt his loss very deeply, and their mother struggled to support the family on her own. His mother's sacrifice was an inspiration to Anh, and he worked hard during his teenage years to help her make ends meet, also managing to graduate high school and then university. Another inspiration was the comedian Anh met when he was about to sign on for a 60-hour-a-week corporate job. Anh asked how many hours he worked; four, the answer came back, and that was it. He was going to be a comedian. The Happiest Refugee tells the incredible, uplifting, and inspiring life story of one of our favourite personalities. Tragedy, humour, heartache, and unswerving determination: a big life with big dreams. Anh's story will move and amuse all who read it. The Happiest Refugee, Anh Do Angie Barillaro, 2014 The Little Refugee

Anh Do, Suzanne Do, 2011-11-01 Anh Do's inspirational story about his family's incredible escape from war-torn Vietnam and his childhood in Australia, told especially for children. Migrant Nation Paul Longley Arthur, 2017-12-15 Focusing on particular historical blind spots by telling stories of individuals and groups that did not fit the favoured identity mould, the essays in Migrant Nation work within the gap between Australian image and experience and offer fresh insights into the other side of identity construction. The volume casts light on the hidden face of Australian identity and remembers the experiences of a wide variety of people who have generally been excluded, neglected, or simply forgotten in the long-running quest to tell a unified story of Australian culture and identity. Drawing upon memories, letters, interviews, and documentary fragments, as well as rich archives, the authors have in common a commitment to give life to neglected histories and thus to include in an expanding and open-ended national narrative people who were cast as strangers in the place that was their home. Vietnamese Migrants in Australia and the Global Digital Diaspora Anh Nguyen Austen, 2022-09-16 Through oral histories, memoirs, and Facebook posts of Vietnamese adults who entered Australia as children after the Vietnam War, and Vietnamese refugees, war orphans, and children of refugees, this book provides insight into the memories of forced migrant childhoods and histories, as well as the complexities of national and transnational identity and belonging in digital diaspora. As war and displacement compound the need for creating communities and histories for cultural continuity, this book is a history about childhood and migration for the Vietnamese diaspora of refugees adoptees and second generation in Australia and their connectedness to a global and digital diaspora Using Facebook as a digital archive for historical research Vietnamese Migrants in Australia and the Global Digital Diaspora presents new methods for the study of what Nguyen Austen proposes as a new area of digital diaspora studies for interdisciplinary research about real and digital life in the humanities and social sciences As a contemporary digital diaspora study of Vietnamese forced child migrants from 1975 to the present this book contains a mixed methods historical analysis of the impact of war and displacement on memories of childhood This book presents an innovative history of the national transnational digital and contemporaneous lives of Vietnamese child migrants which will make a significant contribution to the discourse on transnational childhood migration and belonging for refugees and migrants in the twenty first century
