The Distressed Body Drew Leder, 2016-10-17 Bodily pain and distress come in many forms They can well up from within at times of serious illness but the body can also be subjected to harsh treatment from outside The medical system is often cold and depersonalized and much worse are conditions experienced by prisoners in our age of mass incarceration and by animals trapped in our factory farms In this pioneering book Drew Leder offers bold new ways to rethink how we create and treat distress clearing the way for more humane social practices Leder draws on literary examples clinical and philosophical sources his medical training and his own struggle with chronic pain He levies a challenge to the capitalist and Cartesian models that rule modern medicine Similarly he looks at the root paradigms of our penitentiary and factory farm systems and the way these produce distressed bodies asking how such institutions can be reformed Writing with coauthors ranging from a prominent cardiologist to long term inmates he explores alternative environments that can better humanize even spiritualize the way we treat one another offering a very different vision of medical criminal justice and food systems Ultimately Leder proposes not just new answers to important bioethical questions but new ways of questioning accepted concepts and practices Seagull Theatre Quarterly ,1998 The Animal Spirit Doctrine and the Origins of Neurophysiology C.U.M. Smith, 2012-08-02 This book examines the history of Western attempts to explain how messages might be sent from the sense organs to the brain and from the brain to the muscles It focuses on a construct called animal spirit which would permeate philosophy and guide physiology and medicine for over two millennia Aristotle's De Motu Animalium Martha C. Nussbaum, 2020-10-06 Available for the first time in paperback this volume contains text with translation of De Motu Animalium Aristotle's attempt to lay the groundwork for a general theory of the explanation of animal activity along with commentary and interpretive essays on the work Grace and Gravity Lars Spuybroek, 2020-11-26 How do we live well The first sentence of Grace and Gravity raises the fundamental question that constantly occupies our minds and of all those who lived before us Paradoxically the impossibility of answering this question opens up the very room needed to find ways of living well It is the gap where all disciplines fall short where architecture does not fit its inhabitants where economy is not based on shortage where religion cannot be explained by its followers and where technology works far beyond its own principles According to Lars Spuybroek the prize winning former architect this marks the point where the paradoxical machine of grace reveals its powers a point where we cannot say if we are moving or being moved Following the trail of grace leads him to a new form of analysis that transcends the age old opposition between appearances and technology Linking up a dazzling and often delightful variety of sources monkeys paintings lamp posts octopuses tattoos bleeding fingers rose windows robots smart phones spirits saints and fossils with profound meditations on living death consciousness and existence Grace and Gravity offers an eye opening provocation to a wide range of art historians architects theologians anthropologists artists media theorists and philosophers The Acquisition of the Lexicon Lila R. Gleitman, Barbara

Landau,1994 This text brings together investigations from a variety of disciplinary backgrounds with an emphasis on linguistics psycholinguistics and computer science to examine how young children rapidly acquire the vocabulary of their native tongue and with few errors along the way Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with life-threatening illness and dying David Walter Adams,Eleanor J. Deveau,1995 Death is not a mere possibility but a certainty for all of us Yet today s society unrealistically portrays childhood as a time of unremittant joy and freedom Unfortunately the reality of life may suddenly bring children face to face with tragic circumstances such as the death of their pet the terminal illness of their parent their own struggle with life threatening disease the accidental death of their sibling or the suicide of a friend The gravity of any of these situations takes children beyond the innocence of childhood and plunges them into a world that is frightening and full of uncertainty Unfortunately our perceptions and attitudes toward death do not equip children with the tools to help them cope adequately with such overwhelming experiences Beyond the Innocence of Childhood is a collection of forty chapters which are divided into three separate volumes The overall purpose of this series is to answer the question How do we as educators clinicians other professionals and parents help children and adolescents deal with threat to their lives dying death and bereavement In this three volume set the editors have brought together a number of well known educators researchers and practitioners who share their knowledge and expertise concerning the care and well being of children and adolescents Beyond the Innocence of Childhood: Helping children and adolescents cope with life-threatening illness and dying ,1995 New Activities For Cultural Heritage Marco Ceccarelli,Michela Cigola,Giuseppe Recinto,2017-09-07 This is the Proceedings of the International Workshop Heritagebot 2017 that was held in Cassino Italy in September 2017 The papers cover a wide range of disciplines connected with Cultural Heritage from humanistic fields up to engineering designs through legal aspects and financial economical studies treating aspects of theory design practice and applications Topics addressed during the conference were business models and business planning creative cities and industries documentation analysis and survey of cultural heritage economics of cultural heritage cultural heritage business and organizational models cultural heritage and collaborative digital systems citizen science for cultural heritage service robotics for cultural heritage legal tools for the development and innovation management in cultural heritage capital budgeting and capital structure of cultural heritage sector field applications in cultural heritage Make: AI Robots Reade Richard,Brenda Shivanandan,Andy Forest,Denzel Edwards,2023-10-18 Artificial intelligence is a tool to explore and create and it starts here with the experts at Steamlabs a nonprofit that teaches teens to not just be users of technology but to create with technology so they can be help shape our future Make AI Robots introduces young people to AI through exciting craft projects that start with a mechanical cardboard creation integrates fun electronic lights and motors adds simple coding on a micro bit and then teaches how to train AI to create a spark of life With 32 projects designed to guide beginners through increasing challenges Make AI Robots is the perfect way to feed curious minds with fun AI experiments that will delight and
