Considering Animals Dr Carol Freeman, Dr Elizabeth Leane, Ms Yvette Watt, 2013-07-28 Considering Animals draws on the expertise of scholars trained in the biological sciences humanities and social sciences to investigate the complex and contradictory relationships humans have with nonhuman animals Taking their cue from the specific animal moments that punctuate these interactions the essays engage with contemporary issues and debates central to human animal studies the representation of animals the practical and ethical issues inseparable from human interactions with other species and perhaps most challengingly the compelling evidence that animals are themselves considering beings Case studies focus on issues such as animal emotion and human sentimentality the representation of animals in contemporary art and in recent films such as March of the Penguins, Happy Feet and Grizzly Man animals experiences in catastrophic events such as Hurricane Katrina and the SARS outbreak and the danger of overvaluing the role humans play in the earth's ecosystems. From Marc Bekoff's moving preface through to the last essay Considering Animals foregrounds the frequent sometimes uncanny exchanges with other species that disturb our self-contained existences and bring into focus our troubled relationships with them. Written in an accessible and jargon-free style this collection demonstrates that in the face of species extinction and environmental destruction the roles and fates of animals are too important to be left to any one academic discipline.

Sense of Belonging Jennifer Allen, 2023-10-10 Too often new teachers enter the profession excited to make a difference in the lives of children only to find themselves disillusioned and overwhelmed with the expectations of the classroom. In A Sense of Belonging Jennifer Allen shares her stories and journey in creating an infrastructure of support for new teachers within her school district. A Sense of Belonging provides research-based practical ideas on how to support new teachers while honoring the innovation idealism and optimistic enthusiasm that they bring to the classroom. From supporting new teachers early in the year with administering and analyzing literacy assessments through using student work to guide instruction to offering ongoing help with curriculum planning Jennifer shares strategies on fostering relationships with new teachers starting before school even begins creating learning environments for new teachers to be reflective practitioners coaching new teachers in their classrooms and providing opportunities for them to observe their peers in action supporting new teachers beyond their first year through gradual release of support over their first several years in the classroom and facilitating professional development opportunities where new and veteran teachers learn alongside one another. Jennifer believes and her book demonstrates that when schools embrace, encourage and celebrate the work of new teachers they establish a supportive environment that fosters excellence and improves retention. In Pursuit of a Multilingual Equity

Agenda Meg Gebhard, Kathryn Accurso, 2023-03-10 This critical volume provides accessible examples of how K-12 teachers use systemic functional linguistics (SFL) and action research to support the disciplinary literacy development of diverse learners in the context of high-stakes school reform. With chapters from teachers, teacher educators and researchers this book paves the way for teachers to act as change agents in their schools to design and implement meaningful curriculum.

instruction and assessment that builds on students cultural and linguistic knowledge Addressing case studies and contexts this book provides the framework tools and resources for instructing and supporting multilingual students and ELL This volume intended for pre and in service teachers aims to improve educators professional practice through critical SFL pedagogy and helps teachers combat racism and anti immigrant rhetoric by contributing to an equity agenda in their schools
