time, travel and transcendence... Kristina Evans,2022-12-29 Anna Jinghua returned to her ancestral home It was meant to be a holiday with friends but every hundred years there is a disturbance The time wasn t right to travel as a prediction was unfolding She could have returned home but instead followed a trail of tales where she accepted the inevitable Being a seer of the future there were many threads to weave and with the help of immortals she learned of a diversion Mars isn t a place for the future but a connection with the past To get to your destination all YOU need to do is look into a mirror Life's Journey Kathy Herzog,2012-02-21 Born in a small town in Wisconsin Kathy Herzog never imagined the trials and heartache that would come into her life Yet despite it all she would emerge to become a stronger more courageous woman Deeply intimate Lifes Journey tells Kathys bittersweet true story of how she endured divorce infertility and her husbands illnessand yet was still determined to forge a happy life She details her early college days her painful divorce at the age of thirty her journey to graduate school and the pain of long distance relationships Kathy shares how she met the love of her life David whom she married in October of 2001 After struggling with infertility Kathy became pregnant in 2004 Even as they rejoiced their joy was overshadowed by Davids health problems When they discovered that David had cancer Kathy wondered how she would surviveyet survive she did Through long months and years Kathy worked through lifes challenges to create a new normal life for herself and her familyand succeeded Lifes Journey is a moving testament to the strength of the human spirit

"Becoming" a Professional Lesley Scanlon,2011-06-27 This book is founded on the idea that becoming is the most useful defining concept for a new professional class whose members understand that development in their working lives is an open ended lifelong process of refinement and learning In a world where being a professional is an increasingly indistinct notion and where better education and technology are challenging professional norms it is imperative that we no longer think in terms of an exclusive Anglo American knowledge rich class of workers Exploring the implications of this insight for professions including nursing teaching social work engineering and the clergy this volume aims to encourage informed debate on what it means to be a professional in this globalised 21st century The book argues that becoming a professional is a lifelong process in which individual professional identities are constructed through formal education workplace interactions and popular culture The book advocates the ongoingness of developing a professional self throughout one's professional life What emerges is a concept of becoming a professional different from the isolated rugged individualistic approach to traditional professional practice as represented in popular culture It is a book for the reflective professional
