Edith Frank kept her composure and feelings locked up inside as if her husband who is affected will without people will think of her. Yet she felt like Klaus who she knew well she loved the most deeply. Mrs. Frank was extremely angry and worried that Anne's life was in jeopardy. The nurse positively portrayed the intensity and chaotic behavior that surrounded this event caused great for Anne because of the fact Klaus's mother, like Edith told her too, that Peter would have no contact with his family until Anne had been cured. Edith and Anne always had difficulties getting along because of their different and of course... Edith wanted Anne would be more like Margot, who was a very obedient girl, Anne however was not, who loved her mother and her
