Lončar-Vujnović, 2021-01-11. This book offers contemporary perspectives on different registers of instruction: media language, the effectiveness of a multi-literacies program for introducing English as a Foreign Language, promoting religious tolerance through literature and music teaching, drama, intercultural communication, gender studies and literature studies. By using contemporary research methods, the contributors here offer insights into the ways in which the world of languages and literatures changes and evolves to face the constant challenges resulting from new instructional practices and research investigations, allowing educators, researchers and students alike to keep up with and stay current in all areas relating to language and literature. These illuminating essays highlight the dynamic global prism through which contemporary scholars view these issues and surpass any strict set of rules which would otherwise lead them to ignore the ever-shifting changes in language and literature and the accompanying cultural spaces and realities. Sci-Fi Box Set: 140+ Dystopian Novels,

Narratives of Hope and Despair Johanna M. Wagner, Melanie Duckworth, Deanna Benjamin, 2025-10-14

In narratives of literature and cultural production, hope and despair remain fundamental in exploring our world. In recent years, political polarization, the Covid pandemic, global warming, and new and ongoing wars have contributed to global crises to which despair is an understandable response. Yet hope is continually sought and proclaimed. By examining tropes of ruin and regeneration in a wide selection of narratives, including memoir, graphic narratives, fiction, film, art, radio plays, culture, rhetoric, and discourse, the book uncovers resonances between them. The anthology moves from the personal to the collective, addressing individual matters of the body and the mind, societal visions of utopia and dystopia, and finally hope and despair for the earth itself in representations of apocalypse and the Anthropocene. This structure, alongside the interdisciplinary nature of the project, maps dynamic international perspectives in which hope and despair flow across and through personal, social, and earthly concerns.

Dystopia and Dispossession in the Hollywood Science Fiction Film, 1979-2017 Harry Warwick, 2023-02-15

Offering a survey of Hollywood science fiction cinema from 1979 to 2017, from Ridley Scott's Alien to Denis Villeneuve's Blade Runner 2049, Dystopia and Dispossession in the Hollywood

Science Fiction Film argues that the trajectory of Hollywood's dystopianism in that period is inextricable from the phenomenon of the new enclosures the new dispossessions and privatisations sweeping across the United States since the 1970s More precisely it contends that the critiques of such dispossessions elaborated before the turn of the century consider the satire of private policing in RoboCop 1987 the portrayal of commodified air in Total Recall 1990 and the nightmarish extrapolations of postmodern urbanism in Blade Runner 1982 and The Truman Show 1998 begin to disappear in films such as The Matrix 1999 The Island 2005 District 9 2009 Repo Men 2010 and The Purge 2013 the further commodification of land forest reservoir ideas even the human genome having diminished the contrast between capitalist and non capitalist spaces on which the earlier critiques depended Bringing close readings of blockbuster films into dialogue with historical and theoretical scholarship on dispossession Dystopia and Dispossession in the Hollywood Science Fiction Film proposes a new understanding of the politics of science fiction in particular and utopian thought in general Science Fiction,
