Dr. Terry Thomas, 2010-05-18 All people at some point in their lives will come upon difficult and trying circumstances that are traditionally characterized as a storm As much as we try with great valiant effort to avoid certain things no one can avoid the inevitable storm or storms that will occur in their life Storms are just part of the human condition and we are either coming out of a storm in a storm or heading for a storm Since we know that storms are one of life's certainties we should prepare to deal with them by equipping ourselves with the necessary knowledge and skills This is an imperative statement because if you are not prepared to deal with a storm then your life can easily be ripped apart by it In a very short period of time a storm can quietly and quickly remove things in your life that have taken you a lifetime to acquire You can be a very secure person but if you are not prepared a storm can uproot values that once nurtured and upheld your life like a stalwart tree uprooted from the ground Therefore if you want to know the things to do to make it through a storm Making It through a Storm is a book that you will want to read This book takes a look at what a group of people in 27th chapter of Acts did who made it successfully through a severe storm to learn the fundamental principles that one needs to embrace to make it through a storm Making It through a Storm will share with you some very insightful surprising inspirational and delightful things that will help you make it through a storm in manner that will strengthen and enhance your life Personal storms are common but pertinent aids to help us in understanding and surmounting them are rare indeed This book is one such rare aid and its pages are filled with wisdom shared from a warm heart Dr James Earl Massey Dean Emeritus and Distinguish Professor at Large Anderson University School of Theology

Doggie Style Fernando Nachon, 2008-09 In part the story of its own writing this quasi autobiographical postmodern novel weaves a tale of jealousy sex dope and alcoholism around the theme of the narrator's so far frustrated literary ambitions The integral and inalienable setting is the urban Mexico of the mid 1980s with the Cold War still the international political backdrop to everyday life Wending his way through angst ridden erotic entanglements and a session with his Freudian analyst an anti Lacanian we learn the narrator who goes by the author's real name finally arrives at his dream encounter and dream may well be doubly apt because the episode's relation to everyday reality is left undefined with famed Latin American author and winner of the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1982 Gabriel Garc'a M'quez Perhaps the laureate will write a preface to his latest novel It's about a guy stuck in traffic he wants to be a writer to be famous and Mike one of the characters tells him he should write the A Hundred Years of Solitude of the eighties The guy feels happy at first but then in the middle of the traffic and the smog he realizes that there aren't any Amarantas and Aurelianos Buend'as there aren't any Jos Arcadios that all there are are drunks gangs poor people trampled by the yuppies that after all the jungle is gone
