How to land any airplane Facundo Conforti, Landing is a critical phase of flight Together with takeoff they are the two maneuvers where the greatest risk is present and where all the capacities of both the pilot and the aircraft are required This work focuses on the development of landing independently of the plane but considering the different circumstances that can affect this phase of flight A work that proposes to consider landing as a generalized procedure in any airplane giving the reader the possibility of understanding it beyond the aircraft it can fly Landing is landing Whether in a Cessna 152 a Cessna Citation or an incredible Airbus A320 landing will become a constant on each of your flights and in this book we will teach you how to understand it with the help of the experience of international airline pilots with vast experience in hundreds of aircraft

Advances in Simulation of Wing and Nacelle Stall Rolf Radespiel,Reinhard Niehuis,Norbert Kroll,Kathrin Behrends,2015-07-09 The book reports on advanced solutions to the problem of simulating wing and nacelle stall as presented and discussed by internationally recognized researchers at the Closing Symposium of the DFG Research Unit FOR 1066 Reliable simulations of flow separation on airfoils wings and powered engine nacelles at high Reynolds numbers represent great challenges in defining suitable mathematical models computing numerically accurate solutions and providing comprehensive experimental data for the validation of numerical simulations Additional problems arise from the need to consider airframe engine interactions and inhomogeneous onset flow conditions as real aircraft operate in atmospheric environments with often large distortions The findings of fundamental and applied research into these and other related issues are reported in detail in this book which targets all readers academics and professionals alike interested in the development of advanced computational fluid dynamics modeling for the simulation of complex aircraft flows with flow separation
