data for the validation of numerical simulations Additional problems arise from the need to consider airframe engine interactions and inhomogeneous onset flow conditions as real aircraft operate in atmospheric environments with often large distortions The findings of fundamental and applied research into these and other related issues are reported in detail in this book which targets all readers academics and professionals alike interested in the development of advanced computational fluid dynamics modeling for the simulation of complex aircraft flows with flow separation The Old Bold Pilot Capt. subsequent material and structural testing SARISTU has been responsible for important progress on the route to industrialization of structure integrated functionalities such as Conformal Morphing Structural Health Monitoring and Nanocomposites The gap and edge free deformation of aerodynamic surfaces known as conformal morphing has gained previously unrealized capabilities such as inherent de icing erosion protection and lightning strike protection while at the same time the technological risk has been greatly reduced Individual structural health monitoring techniques can now be applied at the part manufacturing level rather than via extending an aircraft s time in the final assembly line And nanocomposites no longer lose their improved properties when trying to upscale from neat resin testing to full laminate testing at element level As such this book familiarizes the reader with the most significant developments achievements and key technological steps which have been made possible through the four year long cooperation of 64 leading entities from 16 different countries with the financial support of the European Commission
