OPTION A - ALICE: Why, how impolite of him. I asked him a civil question, and he pretended not to hear me. That's not at all nice. I say, Mr. White Rabbit, where are you going? Hmmm. He won't answer me. And I do so want to know what he is late for. I wonder if I might follow him. Why not? There's no rule that I may not go where I please. I--I will follow him. Wait for me, Mr. White Rabbit. I'm coming, too! How curious. I never realized that rabbit holes were so dark . . . and so long . . . and so empty. I believe I have been falling for five minutes, and I still can't see the bottom! Hmph! After such a fall as this, I shall think nothing of tumbling downstairs. How brave they'll all think of me at home. Why, I wouldn't say anything about it even if I fell off the top of the house! I wonder how many miles I've fallen by this time. I must be getting somewhere near the center of the earth. I wonder if I shall fall right through the earth! How funny that would be. Oh, I think I see the bottom. Yes, I'm sure I see the bottom. I shall hit the bottom, hit it very hard, and oh, how it will hurt!

The Theatre of Anxiety Leila Michelle Vaziri, 2024-10-21 We are living in times when populism war and climate change are all sources of anxiety caused by overlapping crises Anxiety is a phenomenon that is not just reflected everywhere around us but is also increasingly manifesting itself in contemporary drama particularly in the last five to ten years many new British dramas and theatre productions have given a stage to anxiety Given this central role of anxiety the aim of this study is to outline the interplay of theatre and anxiety on both a thematic and aesthetic level It argues that a strand of contemporary theatre that combines topics of social ecological technological and pandemic importance with investigations into the philosophical and aesthetic implications of anxiety has come to prominence in recent years the theatre of anxiety This is traced across exemplary readings of a number of contemporary British plays by playwrights such as Caryl Churchill Zinnie Harris Alistair McDowall and others They show that contemporary drama and performance both aesthetically and thematically reflect and comment on global crises and catastrophes through the lens of anxiety as a feeling that colours the perception of and reaction to these social and political conditions

Edward Albee: A Singular Journey Mel Gussow, 2012-11-27

In 1960 Edward Albee electrified the theater world with the American premiere of The Zoo Story and followed it two years later with his extraordinary first Broadway play Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf Proclaimed as the playwright of his generation he went on to win three Pulitzer Prizes for his searing and innovative plays Mel Gussow author critic and cultural writer for The New York Times has known Albee and followed his career since its inception and in this fascinating biography he creates a compelling firsthand portrait of a complex genius The book describes Albee's life as the adopted child of rich unloving parents and covers the highs and lows of his career A core myth of Albee's life perpetuated by the playwright is that The Zoo Story was his first play written as a thirtieth birthday present to himself As Gussow relates Albee has been writing since adolescence and through close analysis the author traces the genesis of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf Tiny Alice A Delicate Balance and other plays After his early triumphs Albee endured years of critical neglect and public disfavor Overcoming artistic and personal difficulties he returned in 1994 with Three Tall Women In this prizewinning play he came to terms with the towering figure of his mother the woman who dominated so much of his early life With frankness and critical acumen and drawing on extensive conversations with the playwright Gussow offers fresh insights into Albee's life At the same time he provides vivid portraits of Albee's relationships with the people who have been closest to him including William Flanagan his first mentor Thornton Wilder Richard Barr John Steinbeck Alan Schneider John Gielgud and his leading ladies Uta Hagen Colleen Dewhurst Irene Worth Myra Carter Elaine Stritch Marian Seldes and Maggie Smith And then there are most famously Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton who starred in Mike Nichols's acclaimed film version of Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf? The book places Albee in context as a playwright who inspired writers as diverse as John Guare and Sam Shepard and as a teacher and champion of human rights. Edward Albee: A Singular Journey is rich with colorful details about this uniquely American life. It also contains previously unpublished photographs and letters from and to Albee. It is the essential book about one of the major artists of the American theater. Catalogue of Copyright Entries, 1914 The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1893 Finding Lists of the Chicago Public Library, 1889-1895 Chicago Public Library, 1895 Rob Wagner's Beverly Hills Script, 1929 The Sterling Dictionary Of Literary Terms Amrita Sharma, 1998

Catalog of Copyright Entries. Part 1. [C] Group 3. Dramatic Composition and Motion Pictures. New Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1946 The Sisters of Luna Island Stacy Hackney, 2023-04-25 Twelve year old Marigold Lafleur must uncover the origins of a curse threatening her family but to do so she must learn to trust her instincts and use the magic she promised her sisters she would abandon Jacques Rivette and French New Wave Cinema James R Russo, 2023-03-18 This first comprehensive English collection of the interviews of Jacques Rivette 1928-2016 documents his career through chronology filmography bibliography and image stills. A comprehensive introduction places this work in the wider context of twentieth century social change. Rivette's films like many of the works of the French New Wave seem to have avoided the aging process entirely remaining as playful fresh and quietly spectacular as the day they were made. Indeed his body of work may be the most impressive of the French New Wave. Celine and Julie Go Boating 1974 has been recognized as possibly the best film to emerge from the post New Wave era even as Paris Belongs to Us 1961 is one of the best pictures to emerge from the New Wave itself. Rivette was hardly the most prolific director however and the length of his films has often counted against him. Nonetheless his clinical self reflexive essays in film form reveal him as a cinematic purist whose commitment to the celluloid muse hardly diminished from the heady days of the early 1950s to the end of his career in 2009. Beyond inspiring the New Wave movement and continuing to reflect and reflect on its central tenets Rivette's enduring contribution to the history of film is unquestionably evident in his sensitive treatment of the histories and destinies of women especially through strong roles for actresses. During the six decades of his career nonetheless he struck a subtle balance not only between female and male characters but also between political and personal obsession between myth and fiction between theater and cinema in films that in addition to having influenced such contemporary filmmakers as Claire Denis Jim Jarmusch Olivier Assayas and David Lynch continue to redefine the art of cinema around the world.
