The Routledge Companion to Children's Literature and Culture Claudia Nelson, Elisabeth Wesseling, Andrea Mei-Ying Wu, 2023-11-30 Focusing on significant and cutting edge preoccupations within children s literature scholarship The Routledge Companion to Children s Literature and Culture presents a comprehensive overview of print digital and electronic texts for children aged zero to thirteen as forms of world literature participating in a panoply of identity formations Offering five distinct sections this volume Familiarizes students and beginning scholars with key concepts and methodological resources guiding contemporary inquiry into children s literature Describes the major media formats and genres for texts expressly addressing children Considers the production distribution and valuing of children s books from an assortment of historical and contemporary perspectives highlighting context as a driver of content Maps how children's texts have historically presumed and prescribed certain identities on the part of their readers sometimes addressing readers who share some part of the author's identity sometimes seeking to educate the reader about a presumed other and in recent decades increasingly foregrounding identities once lacking visibility and voice Explores the historical evolutions and trans-regional contacts and inter-connections in the long process of the formation of global children's literature highlighting issues such as retranslation transnationalism transculturality and new digital formats for considering cultural crossings and renegotiations in the production of children's literature Methodically presented and contextualized this volume is an engaging introduction to this expanding and multifaceted field

Why Writing Still Matters Guy Merchant, 2023-09-07 A new analysis and exploration of writing practices that takes into account the radical impact of digital technologies of communication

China's eBook Evolution Xiang Ren, 2024-06-30 This Element explores the changing landscape of eBook businesses and cultures in China in the past two decades and examines how disruptive innovation and the platform economy have transformed one of the world's largest book markets Through an evolutionary perspective this Element documents and analyses the emergence, growth and refinement of disruptive models in three areas of trade publishing including free eBook developments, digital self-publishing and platformed social reading It offers a critical account of the complex interplay between emerging technologies, business innovations and book cultures and conceptualises China's eBook evolution as both a part of global digital publishing transformation in the platform age and an embodiment of local dynamics in a transitional society This Element is essential for scholars, students, publishers and the interested public to understand China's digital publishing innovations and their global implications

What Readers Do Beth Driscoll, 2024-02-21 Shining a spotlight on everyday readers of the 21st century Beth Driscoll explores how contemporary readers of Anglophone fiction interact with the book industry, digital environments and each other We live in an era when book clubs, bibliomemoirs, Bookstagram and BookTok are as valuable to some readers as solitary reading moments The product of nearly two decades of qualitative research into readers and reading culture What Readers Do examines reading through three dimensions: aesthetic conduct, moral conduct and self-care to show how readers intertwine private and social behaviors and both reinforce and oppose the structures of capitalism Analyzing reading as a post-digital practice that is a synthesis of both print and digital modes and on and offline behaviors Driscoll presents a methodology for studying readers that connects book history, literary studies, sociology and actor-network theory Arguing for the vitality, agency and creativity of readers this book sheds light on how we read now and on how much more readers do than just read
