Donato De Renzis, 2020-01-16 In his mind then small cracks opened from which ancient images emerged perhaps lost in the mass grave of those fragments of memories thrown there randomly and confused with others buried in the cemetery of lost memories As it happens when a ray of sunshine penetrates from the dormer window to break through the walls of the darkness of a dusty attic so the darkness of that mass grave was pierced by the dazzling reflection of a glow of memory which raised the dust of seconds minutes hours days months and years past that eternity had deposited there Perhaps it is these he thought that appear in those strange dreams without meaning where it happens that the door of the mass grave of those confused fragments opens and come out like the gusts of the winds of Aeolus enclosed in the wineskin

Digitalizing the Global Text Paul Allen Miller, 2020-01-07 A few years ago globalism seemed to be both a known and inexorable phenomenon With the end of the Cold War the opening of the Chinese economy and the ascendancy of digital technology the prospect of a unified flow of goods and services and of people and ideas seemed unstoppable Political theorists such as Francis Fukuyama proclaimed that we had reached the end of history Yes there were pockets of resistance and reaction but these we were told would be swept away in a relentless tide of free markets and global integration that would bring Hollywood digital finance and fast food to all Religious fundamentalism nationalism and traditional sexual identities would melt away before the forces of modernity and empire A relentless technocratic rationality would sweep all in its wake bringing a neoliberal utopia of free markets free speech and increasing productivity Nonetheless as we have begun to experience the backlash against a global world founded on digital fungibility the perils of appeals to nationalism identity and authenticity have become only too apparent The collapse of Soviet Communism left an ideological vacuum that offered no recognized place from which to oppose global capitalism What is the alternative The anxieties and resentments produced by this new world order among those left behind are often manifested in assertions of xenophobia and particularity This is what it supposedly means to be really American truly Muslim properly Chinese The other is coming to take what is ours and we must defend ourselves

Digitalizing the Global Text is a collection of essays by an international group of scholars situated squarely at this nexus of forces Together these writers examine how literature culture and philosophy in the global and digital age both enable the creation of these simultaneously utopian and dystopian worlds and offer a resistance to them A joint publication from the University of South Carolina Press and the National Taiwan University Press
