Becky Reilly, 1997-08 This engaging work takes a humorous look at a group of children and their adult directors preparing a Christmas play From tryouts through the performance they experience Jesus in new and genuine ways Young people will relate to the characters portrayed here such as a star with a stage mother an enthusiastic first time director a jaded preacher's kid and a lonely youngster who discovers the gospel of Christ and the real meaning of Christmas for the first time The most appealing features of this entertaining piece are its flexibility and practicality The unique format allows several opportunities for children to share their individual talents singing playing piano or instruments etc as they audition for the pageant The material is easy to learn and you can choose well known Christmas carols for the choir to sing Requiring few costumes and simple sets this play allows you to involve as few or as many as you wish Around the core cast of six children and four adults who could be portrayed by older youth are a choir including all participants and preschool children cast as animals This inspirational resource can be adapted for presentation by churches of any size and can be used as a children's production or
