The Transcultural Critic: Sabahattin Ali and Beyond Seyda Ozil, Michael Hofmann, Jens Peter Laut, Yasemin Dayioglu-Yücel, Cornelia Zierau, 2017 The central theme of this volume is the work of Sabahattin Ali the Turkish author and translator from German into Turkish who achieved posthumous success with his novel Kırk Mantolu Madonna The Madonna in the Fur Coat Our contributors analyze this novel which takes place largely in Germany and several other texts by Ali in the context of world literature cultural translation and intertextuality Their articles go far beyond the intercultural love affair that has typically dominated the discussion of Madonna Other articles consider Zafer enocak's essay collection Deutschsein and transcultural learning through picture books An interview with Selim Zdo an rounds out the issue Academy; a Weekly Review of Literature, Learning, Science and Art, 1874 The Poetical gazette the official organ of the Poetry society and a review of poetical affairs nos 4 7 issued as supplements to the Academy v 79 Oct 15 Nov 5 Dec 3 and 31 1910 The American, 1881 The Colonial and National Formations of the National College of Arts, Lahore, circa 1870s to 1960s Nadeem Omar Tarar, 2022-02-08 Utilizing archival sources this book examines the formation and evolution of the National College of Arts NCA in Lahore a pivotal institution shaping the art architecture and design landscape of contemporary Pakistan since the 19th century Theoretical analysis reveals how the NCA as a bureaucratic entity has influenced the development of design schools museums and artistic practices in both British India and Pakistan initially under the influence of British art education from South Kensington The study traces the institution's history from its metropolitan European roots during the British colonial period through the American restructuring of art education administration and pedagogy in the early years of independence It explores how frameworks of art history and anthropology have been used to construct and objectify Pakistani art and artists By deconstructing these disciplinary frameworks the book sheds light on how imperial and nationalist discourses have intersected to influence and redefine artistic and cultural identities within Pakistan The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1879 Architecture and Art of the Deccan Sultanates George Michell, Mark Zebrowski, 1999-06-10 The Muslim kingdoms of the Deccan plateau flourished from the fourteenth to eighteenth centuries During this period the Deccan sultans built palaces mosques and tombs and patronised artists who produced paintings and decorative objects Many of these buildings and works of art still survive as testimony to the sophisticated techniques of their craftsmen This volume is the first to offer an overall survey of these architectural and artistic traditions and to place them within their historical context The links which existed between the Deccan and the Middle East for example are discernible in Deccani architecture and paintings and a remarkable collection of photographs many of which have never been published before testify to these influences The book will be a source of inspiration to all those interested in the rich and diverse culture of India as well as to those concerned with the artistic heritage of the Middle East The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1910 Tables of European history, literature,
