Land Use Dynamics and Governance in Sungai Selangor Watershed Jamilah Mohamad, Goh Hong Ching, 2015-11-24 Watersheds have been widely recognized as the best scale at which to govern water At the geographic scale of the watersheds stakeholders are able to make decisions on how to manage water resources in a setting more conducive to participation Through coordinated development and management of water land and related resources economic and social welfare can be optimized without compromising sustainability of vital environmental systems Sungai Selangor is an important water resource for the state of Selangor It is the major contributor in meeting water demand to the Selangor State and Kuala Lumpur Since early days Sungai Selangor has played a central role in the development of settlements in northern Selangor The research described here is an attempt to understand the development forces operating in the Sungai Selangor watershed The approach taken is intentionally multi disciplinary as it attempts to paint a broad brush picture of the current situation within the Sungai Selangor watershed Increasing pressures on land development is a major factor that causes land use conflicts in the watershed Spatial environmental governance should improve collaboration and connections between citizens and decision makers at the watershed scale Many issues within the economic social or environmental realm necessitate an understanding of the spatial context within which such forces operate The book is organized in ten chapters each chapter being devoted towards addressing particular issues considered prevalent or outstanding within the community living within the watershed Although the book has been written in an academic manner it should also appeal to the general public and students in higher education institutions as it relates to topical issues Beginner researchers may find that the discussion of various issues within a location specific context might spark off their interest to begin their own research on particular aspects that appeal to their own area of expertise

Foreign Fighters and Radical Influencers Asya Metodieva, 2022-12-30 This book looks at Salafi influencers and foreign fighters in the Balkans to examine how the origins and dynamics of radical milieus are related to the legacy of the Bosnian War and the Kosovo War The work seeks to understand if and in what ways these wars influenced the consolidation of radical milieus and whether they impacted the recruitment of foreign fighters In doing so the book traces the path of more than 400 individuals that either traveled to Syria or were involved in recruitment locally Employing a qualitative methodological approach the book argues that radical influencers are likely to be more evident in postwar societies due to state and societal fragility which create more power for social actors and constrain efforts to counter extremism Through the activism of social actors emerging from wars preceding conflicts resonate through society across different locations and particular postwar radical milieus do not need to be only in the place where war atrocities happened Thus radical milieus can spread to various locations including countries hosting postwar diaspora communities This book will be of much interest to students of radicalisation terrorism and political violence Balkan politics Middle Eastern politics and IR in general

Trauma Informed Care Tamar Rodney, 2025-08-09 This text outlines a practical guide for nurses and healthcare providers to provide care for individuals with varying traumatic histories with an informed perspective Consideration of trauma as an acute experience to one that can develop into a post traumatic stress disorder are explored Additionally the biological behavioral historical and cumulative basis of trauma are discussed as well as the family's role in generational trauma Trauma presents a complex multilayered experience that requires understanding to provide appropriate care Trauma is often viewed as a physical experience with minimal consideration of the emotional and mental health aspects of these experiences The perspective of unseen emotional scars is given descriptive graphic to allow the scars to be visualized and treated The book includes perspectives across the globe from Thailand UK Philippines India Ireland and Caribbean As such this book will fill a gap in the field

Handbook of Human and Social Conditions in Assessment Gavin T. L. Brown, Lois R.

Harris, 2016-06-23 The Handbook of Human and Social Conditions in Assessment is the first book to explore assessment issues and opportunities occurring due to the real world of human cultural historical and societal influences upon assessment practices policies and statistical modeling With chapters written by experts in the field this book engages with numerous forms of assessment from classroom level formative assessment practices to national accountability and international comparative testing practices all of which are significantly influenced by social and cultural conditions A unique and timely contribution to the field of Educational Psychology the Handbook of Human and Social Conditions in Assessment is written for researchers educators and policy makers interested in how social and human complexity affect assessment at all levels of learning Organized into four sections this volume examines assessment in relation to teachers students classroom conditions and cultural factors Each section is comprised of a series of chapters followed by a discussant chapter that synthesizes key ideas and offers directions for future research Taken together the chapters in this volume demonstrate that teachers test creators and policy makers must account for the human and social conditions that shape assessment if they are to implement successful assessment practices which accomplish their intended outcomes Bread and Roses Dee Michell, Jacqueline Z. Wilson, Verity Archer, 2015-06-26 Bread and Roses is an Australian first a collection of stories from academics who identify as coming from working class backgrounds At once inspiring and challenging the collection demonstrates how individual narratives are both personal and structural in that they illustrate the ways in which social forces shape individual lives Central themes in the book are generational changes in university education provision in Australia the complexities of coming from a working class background and being female or coming from a working class background and being female and a recent migrant and the particular challenges facing students and staff from rural and regional areas An essential read for anyone interested in widening participation programs in higher education including administrators academics past and present students Bread and Roses is both a map for those who want to undertake a similar journey and a community for those who want to join The Palgrave Handbook of Innovative Community and Clinical Psychologies Carl Walker, Sally Zlotowitz, Anna Zoli, 2022-02-01 This handbook highlights a range of ground breaking radical and liberatory clinical and critical community psychology projects from around the world The disciplines of critical community psychology and clinical psychology are currently experiencing radical innovations that in this book are characterised as moving from the individualising practice realm toward an altogether more contextualising orientation Both fields are responding to an array of political social and economic injustices and a global political context Community and clinical psychologists have found themselves reorienting their practice to confront resist and subvert the structures that are so damaging to the lives of the vulnerable people they work with This text posits that these approaches refute and resist the psychologising that has strengthened oppressive structures Such practices are starting to engage in the political character of power knowledge relationships that demand a more action oriented and less clinical psychology praxis and there is a growing interest in and commitment to social justice in the field of mental wellbeing Using examples of scholar activist and practitioner work from around the world this collection explores and documents those practices where the traditional remits of community and clinical psychology have been subverted altered stretched changed and reworked in order to reframe practice around human rights creativity political activism social change space and place systemic violence community transformation resource allocation and radical practices of disruption and direct action
