

Shipping and Docking Containers
 From 1975 to 1979, the U.S. Coast Guard reported that 1,100 containers were lost or damaged in the United States. The Coast Guard estimates that the loss of containers costs the shipping industry $100 million annually. The Coast Guard is now working with the shipping industry to develop a system of container tracking and identification. The Coast Guard is also working with the shipping industry to develop a system of container inspection and certification.
