Bluman,2003-07 American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Research Methods for Environmental Studies Mark Kanazawa,2017-10-18 The methodological needs of environmental studies are unique in the breadth of research questions that can be posed calling for a textbook that covers a broad swath of approaches to conducting research with potentially many different kinds of evidence Written specifically for social science based research into the environment this book covers the best practice research methods most commonly used to study the environment and its connections to societal and economic activities and objectives Over five key parts Kanazawa introduces quantitative and qualitative approaches mixed methods and the special requirements of interdisciplinary research emphasizing that methodological practice should be tailored to the specific needs of the project Within these parts detailed coverage is provided on key topics including the identification of a research project spatial analysis ethnography approaches interview technique and ethical issues in environmental research Drawing on a variety of extended examples to encourage problem based learning and fully addressing the challenges associated with interdisciplinary investigation this book will be an essential resource for students
