This volume brings together research from around the world to explore a range of topics within the project of detecting terrorist activities. It is divided into six key themes: conceptualising terrorism; deception and decision making; social and cultural factors in terrorism; modelling hostile intent; strategies for counter terrorism; and future directions. Twenty-four chapters explore the spectrum of detecting terrorist activities: hostile intent; crowded public spaces; and suspicious behaviour. A variety of disciplines are represented, including ergonomics, human factors, psychology, criminology, cognitive science, sociology, political theory, engineering, and computer science.
