

MARK SCHEME for the October/November 2013 series

4024 MATHEMATICS (SYLLABUS D)

Paper 2, maximum raw mark 100

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the October/November 2013 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

97october November 2013 Paper 22

RJ Shavelson

97october November 2013 Paper 22:

Women in New Religions Laura Vance, 2015-03-13 The author looks at women's evolving place in the birth and development of new religious movements. It focuses on four disparate new religions: Mormonism, Seventh day Adventism, The Family International, and Wicca, to illuminate their implications for gender socialization, religious leadership and participation, sexuality and family ideals. As new religious movements emerge, they often position themselves in opposition to dominant society and assert alternative roles for women. But these religions are not monolithic; rather, they define gender in rigid and repressive terms. New religions sometimes offer possibilities to women that are not otherwise available. Vance traces expectations for women as the religions emerge and transformation of possibilities and responsibilities for women as they mature.

 center their research on northern thought and political activity and usually overlook the vibrant pockets of activism that existed elsewhere In Remapping Second Wave Feminism Janet Allured attempts to reshape the national narrative by focusing on the grassroots women s movement in the South particularly in Louisiana This book delves into unexplored origins of the feminist movement While acknowledging the ways that the fight for African American civil rights produced the women s liberation movement in the South and subsequently in the North Allured also locates other wellsprings of the movement that were particularly important to southern change seekers especially preexisting women s organizations such as the League of contribution State Formation After Civil War Derek M Powell,2016-08-05 State formation after civil war offers a new model for studying the formation of the state in a national peace transition as an integrated national phenomenon Current models of peacebuilding and state building limit that possibility reproducing a fragmented selective view of this complex reality Placing too much emphasis on state building as design they place too little on understanding state formation as unplanned historical process The dominant focus on national institutions also ignores the role that cities and civic polities have played in constituting the modern state Mining ideas from many disciplines and evidence from 19 peace processes including South Africa the book argues that the starting point for building a systematic theory is to explain a distinct pattern to state formation that can be observed in practice Despite their conflicts people in fragile societies bargain terms for peaceful coexistence they make attempts to constitute the right to rule as valid state authority in circumstances prone to conflict over which they have imperfect influence not control Though the kind of institutions created will differ with context how rules for state authority are institutionalized follows a consistent basic pattern That pattern defines state formation in peace transitions as both a unified if contingent field of normative practice and an object of comparative study Where the national centric models see local government as a matter belonging to policy on decentralization for later in the reconstruction phase the book uncovers a distinct local government dimension to peace transitions A civic dimension to national conflicts that must be explained incipient or proto local authorities that emerge even during civil war in peace making after state collapse the fact that it is common for peace agreements and constitutions to include rules for local authority for local elections to be held as part of broader democratization and for laws to be enacted to establish local government as part of peace compacts The book develops the concept of local peace transition to explain the distinctive constitutive role of this local dimension in peace making and state formation This path breaking book will be of compelling interest to practitioners scholars and students of comparative constitutional studies international law peace building and state building

Crisis in Lutheran Theology, Vol. 3 John Warwick Montgomery, 2020-06-17 All Three volumes deal with the issue of biblical inerrancy that the Bible is completely true and accurate not only when it speaks to ideas of religious belief but also when it speaks about factual elements of history and science properly understood This issue rocked the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod back in the late 1960s and early 1970s prompting the release of the first two volumes Volume one consists of essays by John Warwick Montgomery himself and is addressed primarily to theologians Volume two consists of an anthology by eight separate Lutheran contributors and is addressed to laymen as well as professional theologians Volume 3 contains new never before published material and consists of essays by Dr Montgomery outlining a new challenge along the same lines Dr Jeffery Kloha suggested a few years ago with the latest critical edition of the New Testament Nestle Aland 28th Edition because of the interchangeability of some variant readings that we now had a plastic text Dr Montgomery goes up against this assertion with everything he has Though obviously addressing themselves primarily to Lutheranism the materials are to a large degree equally applicable to many of the other Christian communions and will be found to be extremely valuable in assessing the needs of a variety of denominations
