Rodwin,2013-10-03 In this book Marc Rodwin examines the development of conflicts of interest in the health care systems of the US France and Japan He shows that national differences in the organization of medical practice and the interplay of organized medicine the market and the state give rise to variations in the type and prevalence of such conflicts and then analyzes the strategies that each nation employs to cope with them Drawing on the experiences of these three nations Conflicts of Interest and the Future of Medicine demonstrates that we can mitigate these problems with carefully planned reform and regulation Daily Graphic Ransford Tetteh,2010-02-08 Transforming Healthcare in Africa Robert Dibie,2025-01-14 The current available books and literature that shed light on health policies in many African countries are limited Transforming Healthcare in Africa A Comparative Analysis by Professor Robert Dibie examines the key players in the health system game in many African countries It explores the regulatory regimes that impact the health systems such as the Ministry of Health It also provides few case studies of the relationship between the government the environment and their citizens Apart from filling the gap in the healthcare policy in African literature the authors also seek to examine the impacts of weak health policies and the inability to effectively formulate solid initiatives for capacity building that could lead to enhanced healthcare delivery for all their citizens Thus Dibie s book provides evidence to inform scholarly discussion on the best approaches to strengthen healthcare delivery and public health capacity in many African countries The book also sought to answer six research questions 1 How is healthcare delivery perceived by African countries 2 How are healthcare policies implemented in urban and rural regions or local governments in African countries 3 To what extent are current health services delivered to respond to all citizens needs in African countries 4 What is the current capacity for rural or local governments to effectively engage in health service delivery 5 How can citizens living in rural and urban regions be empowered in the health development delivery system and 6 Which is the best evidence based management system adopted to improve affordable healthcare system in many African countries It also fills the gap in the literature of health systems in Africa Learning Asante Twi without tears: without special title Emmanuel Osei-Bonsu,2002 The Calcutta Gazette ,1910 Dilemmas of Culture in African Schools Cati Coe,2005-11 In working to build a sense of nationhood Ghana has focused on many social engineering projects the most meaningful and fascinating of which has been the state s effort to create a national culture through its schools As Cati Coe reveals in Dilemmas of Culture in African Schools this effort has created an unusual paradox while Ghana encourages its educators to teach about local cultural traditions those traditions are transformed as they are taught in school classrooms The state version of culture now taught by educators has become objectified and nationalized vastly different from local traditions Coe identifies the state's limitations in teaching cultural knowledge and discusses how Ghanaians negotiate the tensions raised by the competing visions of modernity that nationalism and Christianity have created She reveals how cultural curricula affect authority relations in local social organizations between teachers and students between Christians and national elite and between children and elders and raises several questions about educational processes state society relations the production of knowledge and the making of Ghana's citizenry

Children, Childhood, and the Future

Andrea Kleeberg-Niepage, 2020-01-10 Although most of the world's children live in the Global South much of the corpus of scientific knowledge which forms the basis of the current notion of good childhood worldwide is drawn from research on Western middle class children Even cross cultural research often applies the Western model of childhood as the standard to which others must correspond This volume serves to bridge this gap by both bringing up significant features of the development and socialisation of children in African countries and presenting cross cultural procedures which help to discuss and develop differentiated and joint ideas about childhood instead of implementing one sided standards which are disconnected from most children's lives
