The Umpire Was Blind! Jonathan Weeks,2020-05-21 In the words of former American League umpire Nestor Chylak umpires are expected to be perfect on the first day of the season and then get better every day Forced to deal with sullen managers and explosive players they often take the blame for the failures of both But let's face it umpires are only human For well over a century the fortunes of Major League teams and the fabric of baseball history itself have been dramatically affected by the flawed decisions of officials While the use of video replay in recent decades has reduced the number of bitter disputes many situations remain exempt from review and are subject to swirling controversy In the heat of the moment mistakes are often made sometimes with monumental consequences This book details some of these more controversial calls and the men who made them American Lumberman ,1910 All Hands ,1974 The Spectator ,1854 A weekly review of politics literature theology and art

The academy ,1881 Higher Education and the Gendering of Space in England and Wales, 1869-1909

Georgia Oman,2023-06-07 This book offers a spatial history of the decades in which women entered the universities as students for the first time Through focusing on several different types of spaces such as learning spaces leisure spaces and commuting spaces it argues that the nuances and realities of everyday life for both men and women students during this period can be found in the physical environments in which this education took place as declaring women eligible for admittance and degrees did not automatically usher in coeducation on equal terms It posits that the intersection of gender and space played an integral role in shaping the physical and social landscape of higher education in England and Wales in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries whether explicitly as epitomised by the building of single sex colleges or implicitly through assumed behavioural norms and practices
