Confronting Challenges to the Liberal Arts Curriculum Patti McGill Peterson, 2012-03-15 Comparative research on higher education in developing and transitional countries is often focused on such issues as access finance student mobility and the impact of globalization but there has been little attention to curriculum and the forces that shape it Confronting Challenges to the Liberal Arts Curriculum fills an important gap in the literature by examining the context content challenges and successes of implementing liberal arts coursework within undergraduate curriculum In order to fully understand the place of liberal education in each location chapter authors have employed a wide lens to investigate the influences upon curricular content in China India Mexico Pakistan Poland Russia South Africa and Turkey Thus this volume explores how curricular content is decided how educational programs are being structured and whether countries are viewing higher education as more than just the preparation of students for specialized knowledge By providing detailed case studies of these countries at crucial transition points in their higher education systems each chapter outlines the state of higher education system and the government s role the impact of imported models the presence of a liberal education the curricular formation and best examples of successful programs Ultimately this volume depicts how global influences have come to rest in developing countries and how market forces far removed from faculty and students have shaped the undergraduate curriculum This valuable book is of interest to scholars and researchers in Higher Education as well as practitioners working to foster student and faculty exchange and raise awareness of curricular issues

Simulated Patient Methodology Debra Nestel, Margaret Bearman, 2014-12-31 Simulated Patient Methodology is a timely book aimed at health professional educators and Simulated Patient SP practitioners It connects theory and evidence with practice to ensure maximum benefit for those involved in SP programmes in order to inform practice and promote innovation The book provides a unique contemporary global overview of SP practice for all health sciences educators Simulated Patient Methodology Provides a cross disciplinary overview of the field Considers practical issues such as recruiting and training simulated patients and the financial planning of SP programmes Features case studies illustrating theory in practice drawn from across health professions and countries to ensure relevance to localised contexts Written by world leaders in the field this invaluable resource summarises the theoretical and practical basis of all human based simulation methodologies The Zuma Years Richard Calland,2013-08-16 The face of power in South Africa is rapidly changing for better and for worse The years since Thabo Mbeki was swept aside by Jacob Zuma s coalition of the wounded have been especially tumultuous with the rise and fall of populist politicians such as Julius Malema the terrible events at Marikana and the embarrassing Guptagate scandal What lies behind these developments How does the Zuma presidency exercise its power Who makes our foreign policy What goes on in cabinet meetings What is the state of play in the Alliance is the SACP really more powerful than before And as the landscape shifts what are the opposition s prospects In The Zuma Years Richard Calland attempts to answer these questions and more by holding up a mirror to the new establishment by exploring how people such as Malema Chief Justice Mogoeng Mogoeng and DA parliamentary leader Lindiwe Mazibuko have risen so fast by examining key drivers of transformation in South Africa such as the professions and the universities and by training a spotlight on the toxic mix of money and politics The Zuma Years is a fly on the wall insider s approach to the people who control the power that affects us all It takes you along the corridors of government and corporate power mixing solid research with vivid anecdote and interviews with key players The result is an accessible yet authoritative account of who runs South Africa and how today Decolonizing University Teaching and Learning D. Tran,2021-05-20 Decolonizing University Teaching and Learning considers apprehensions around decolonizing and offers a summary of key arguments within critical discussion around its meaning and value through engagement with a growing body of literature The contextually based and complex discussions concerning decolonization means one cannot be guided through the process in a particular way Therefore the text is not intended to be read as a handbook for decolonizing teaching and learning nor is it an anthropologically oriented text Drawing on Critical Race Theory the book highlights the benefits of decolonizing teaching and learning for all students and staff This book offers up the TRAAC model as an entry point for challenging conversations By bringing together questions raised within existing scholarly discussions the TRAAC model provides prompts to instigate deeper reflections around decolonizing by way of supporting colleagues to start a productive dialogue Through these critically reflective and reflexive conversations action oriented discussions can simultaneously take place The value of this book lies in the contributions from authors based across a number of universities and disciplines Reflecting on personal experiences staff and student relationships subject specific challenges and wider issues within HE the contributions are grounded in the employment of the TRAAC model as a mode of entry into discussing particular issues around decolonizing teaching and learning Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education Wisdom, Sherrie,Leavitt, Lynda,Bice, Cynthia,2019-06-28 In comparing one public school to another discussions frequently include talk concerning the socioeconomics of a school or district which then leads to talk about the advantages that one socioeconomic setting has over another Educators tend to agree that low academic achievement frequently associated with a low socioeconomic status is a characteristic difficult to resolve for a population of school children The Handbook of Research on Social Inequality and Education is a critical reference source that provides insights into social influences on school and educational settings Featuring an array of topics including online learning social mobility and teacher preparation this book is excellent for educational leaders educational researchers teachers academicians administrators instructional designers and teacher preparation programs Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.), First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 Dictionary Catalog of the University Library, 1919-1962 University of California, Los Angeles. Library,1963 Self-Directed Learning for the 21st Century:

Implications for Higher Education Elsa Mentz,Josef de Beer,Roxanne Bailey,Per B. Bergamin,Chantelle Bosch,Adri du Toit,Roelien Goede,Aubrey Golightly,David W. Johnson,Roger T. Johnson,Corné Kruger,Dorothy Laubscher,Anitia Lubbe,Jako Olivier,Christo van der Westhuizen,Sukie van Zyl,2019-12-12 This book is devoted to scholarship in the field of self directed learning in the 21st century with specific reference to higher education The target audience of the book includes scholars in the field of self directed learning and higher education The book contributes to the discourse on the quality of education in the 21st century and adds to the body of scholarship in terms of self directed learning and specifically its role in higher education Although all the chapters in the book directly address self directed learning the different foci and viewpoints raised make the book a rich knowledge bank of work on self directed learning Non-Motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa Winnie V. Mitullah,Marianne Vanderschuren,Meleckidzedek Khayesi,2017-07-14 What challenges do pedestrians and cyclists face in cities of the developing world What opportunities do these cities have to provide for walking and cycling Based on in depth research conducted in Cape Town South Africa Dar es Salaam Tanzania and Nairobi Kenya this book explores these questions by presenting work on walking and cycling travel behaviour the status of road safety in these cities as well as an analysis of the infrastructure for walking and cycling and the workings of the institutions responsible for planning for these modes The book also presents case studies relating to particular opportunities and challenges such as the development and evaluation of walking bus interventions and the opportunities micro simulation of pedestrian interventions offers within a data scarce environment Non motorized Transport Integration into Urban Transport Planning in Africa demonstrates that transport and urban planning remains situated in a logic of automobile dependent transport planning and global city development This logic of practice does not pay adequate attention to walking and cycling It argues that a significant shift in both policy as well as political commitment is needed so as to prioritize walking and cycling as strategies for sustainable transport policy in urban Africa This book will be a key text for practitioners and policy makers working in planning transport policy and urban development in Africa as well as students and scholars of African studies development studies urban geography transport studies and sustainable development
