Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi Makalela, 2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

Life in Transit: Theological and Ethical Contributions on Migration Manitza Kotzé, Riaan Rheeder, 2020-12-31 Migration is an issue that is under discussion worldwide and affects South Africa the United States of America and Germany in a distinctive way This book reflects academically on this significant and topical subject of migration from the often neglected perspective of the fields of theology and Christian ethics While the majority of contributions are from the South African context there are also chapters reflecting on the topic from the other two aforementioned contexts While numerous publications have recently appeared on the subject reflection from theology and Christian ethics are often lacking As such this scholarly publication wants to add ethical value to the local and global conversations on the theme from a theological perspective The book reflects on migration from the perspectives originated in the disciplines of biblical studies the Hebrew Bible and the New Testament systematic theology ecumenical studies Christian ethics practical theology and missiology It presents new and innovative inquiries primarily from a qualitative methodological viewpoint The book unveils new themes for deliberation and provides novel interpretations and insights into existing research
