

A woman with dark hair, wearing a white sleeveless dress, is walking barefoot on a sandy beach. She is looking down at her feet. The beach is reflected in the calm water in the foreground. In the background, there is a line of green trees under a clear sky.

“A valuable resource for women to determine their strengths and weaknesses and then to apply those discoveries toward realizing their life dreams.”

Christine Hassler

Something 20 Everything Quarter Life Balance Direction:

20-Something, 20-Everything Christine Hassler, 2010-09-24 The midtwenties through the midthirties can be a time of difficult transition the security blankets of college and parents are gone and it's suddenly time to make far reaching decisions about career investments and adult identity When author Christine Hassler experienced what she calls the twenties triangle she found that she was not alone In fact an entire generation of young women is questioning their choices unsure if what they've been striving for is what they really want They're eager to set a new course for their lives even if that means giving up what they have Hassler herself left a fast moving career that wasn't right for her and instead took the risk of starting her own business Now based on her own experience and interviews with hundreds of women she shares heartfelt stories on issues from career to parents to boyfriends to babies Yet she also provides practical exercises to enable today's woman to chart a new direction for her life
