Dick,2015-01-13 Horror films Deanna Durbin musicals Francis the talking mule Ma and Pa Kettle Ross Hunter weepies Theme parks ET Apollo 13 These are only a few of the many faces of Universal Pictures In February 1906 Carl Laemmle German immigrant and former clothing store manager opened his first nickelodeon in Chicago He quickly moved from exhibition to distribution and to film production A master of publicity and promotions within ten years Uncle Carl had moved his entire operation to southern California founded a city and established Universal Pictures as one of the major Hollywood studios In time Universal found its niche in horror films featuring Karloff and Lugosi comedies starring Abbott and Costello and W C Fields and low budget musicals But Carl Laemmle Jr proved less adept than his father at empire building Eventually he was forced out by financial difficulties opening the way for a string of studio heads who entered and exited one after another. Thus the age of corporate Hollywood arrived at Universal Pictures earlier than at other studios. The Universal International merger in 1946, Decca's stock takeover in the early 1950s and MCA's buyout in 1962 all presaged today's Hollywood where the art of the deal often eclipses the art of making movies. Stars and executives have come and gone shaping and reshaping the studio's image but through it all Universal's revolving globe logo has remained on movie screens around the world. And unlike several other studios of Hollywood's golden age, Universal still makes movies today.

The Collected Letters of Robinson Jeffers, with Selected Letters of Una Jeffers James Karman, 2015-07-15. This volume of correspondence, the last in a three-volume edition, spans a pivotal moment in American history: the mid-twentieth century from the beginning of World War II through the years of rebuilding and uneasy peace that followed to the election of President John F. Kennedy. Robinson Jeffers published four important books during this period: Be Angry at the Sun 1941, Medea 1946, The Double Axe 1948, and Hungerfield 1954. He also faced changes to his hometown village of Carmel, experienced the rewards of being a successful dramatist in the United States and abroad, and endured the loss of his wife. Una Jeffers' letters and those of Una written in the decade prior to her death offer a vivid chronicle of the life and times of a singular and visionary poet.

Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1961. What Jefferson Read, Ike Watched, and Obama Tweeted Tevi Troy, 2013-09-02. From Cicero to Snooki, the cultural influences on our American presidents are powerful and plentiful. Thomas Jefferson famously said, "I cannot live without books," and his library backed up the claim, later becoming the backbone of the new Library of Congress. Jimmy Carter watched hundreds of movies in his White House while Ronald Reagan starred in a few in his own time. Lincoln was a theatergoer while Obama kicked back at home to a few episodes of HBO's The Wire. America is a country built by thinkers on a foundation of ideas. Alongside classic works of philosophy and ethics, however, our presidents have been influenced by the books, movies, TV shows, viral videos, and social media sensations of their day. In What Jefferson Read, Ike Watched, and Obama Tweeted, 200 Years of Popular Culture in the White House, presidential scholar and former White House aide Tevi Troy combines research with witty observation to tell the story of how our presidents have been shaped by popular culture.
